

THE SENIOR NEWSLETTER

By HAZEL LEARY

Hi Friends: Everything is back to normal again here at old E. H. S. now that exams are over. With the worry of exams behind us and this nice warm weather we're having now we should all be feeling very happy. There is one member of the Senior Class who isn't feeling too happy though. Who is it? Why isn't this person feeling happy? This unhappy person is none other than Rachel Louise Cale, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Grover Cale. And the cause for her unhappiness is the absence of her boy friend, Red Simpson, who is a member of the Air Force in Texas.

While we were talking to Rachel about her unhappiness and trying to cheer her up, we found out a little about her life. She was born in Chowan County on October 14, 1932. She started school at Advance but transferred to Chowan School in the second grade. We first became acquainted with Rachel when she started to school here in Edenton in her Sophomore year. While here she has been an active member of the F.H.A. Her leisure time is spent at the movies, singing, reading, and writing letters to Red. Keeping a diary and collecting movie books are her hobbies and they really keep her busy. Rachel hasn't definitely decided on a future career as yet, though she has considered several vocations in which she is interested. Good luck, Rachel. I'm sure you have the perseverance to succeed in any vocation of your choosing.

The next biography is that of one of our local football heroes. He was born here in Edenton but later moved to Mantoloking. We met him for the first time when he moved back here last year.

Yes, you guessed it! It is none other than Thomas Millidge Cannady, better known as "Buddy." Buddy, as we all know, is a great sport enthusiast. He participates in such sports as football, basketball, baseball, and boxing. This year he is a member of the Student Council and the Monogram Club. His only interests in life are sports, eating, and sleeping. He says that he isn't interested in girls. I'm just quoting him. I didn't say I believed him, and confidentially, I don't!

Buddy hasn't made any plans for the future as yet. With the world in the condition that it is now maybe Buddy won't have to make any plans because his future might be planned by someone else already. Whatever is in store for him, let's hope it's nothing but good.

30 People Examined At Cancer Clinic

At the Cancer Detection Clinic held last week at the Health Center in Elizabeth City, thirty people were examined. Of that number there were twenty-one women and nine men. This brings the total number of examinees to 786 since the opening of the clinic a little more than a year ago.

Seven examinees came from Pasquotank County, nine from Chowan County, one from Bertie, two from Northampton, one from Perquimans, four from Washington, five from Camden, and one from Gates.

Farmer "Retires" As Corn Champion

W. D. Pegram has "retired" as Negro corn-growing champion of Wake County.

After winning the championship for five straight years, Pegram declined to have his 1950 crop measured in order that some other farmer might have a chance at the honor. The winner turned out to be one of Pegram's neighbors, Hallie Wray of Route 1, Varina.

Wray produced 132.9 bushels on one acre to take first place in the county's Three-to-One Corn Contest sponsored by the Raleigh Merchants Bureau. The event, conducted annually for the past several years, is designed to encourage farmers to triple their corn yields.

Wray received a cash prize of $25. Five other junior and adult winners received a total of $75 in prizes.

Conan Allen, Route 1, Zebulon, won first place in the 4-H Club and Older Youth division with a yield of 104.3 bushels. Thomas Wilder, Route 3, Raleigh, was second with 88.2 bushels and J. Millard Perry, Eagle Rock, was third with 85.4 bushels.

Runner-up in the adult division was Cleveland Rogers, Route 2, Wendell. Chester McCoy, Route 3, Raleigh, was third. According to W. C. Davenport, Wake Negro farm agent for the State College Extension Service, more than 200 farmers participated in the contest. Awards were presented by Karl Hudson, Jr., 1951 chairman of the Merchants Bureau's Agricultural Committee. Other features of the program were a PMA forum conducted by C. H. Hester of the Wake PMA office and short talks by Davenport and E. E. Evans, assistant county agent, who supervised the corn program.
