

Miss Hazel Braswell Wins Peace Finals Speaking Contest Held At High School Last Week

Edenton High School finals in the study and speaking program for world peace were held in the High School library Wednesday, February 14, at 9:30 A. M. The contest finalists were Dorothy Baker, Hazel Braswell, Carlton Jackson and Charles Cannon, all of the senior class. At the close of the program the judges' polled, and Mrs. David Holton, president of the Edenton Junior Women's Club, sponsoring organization for the local contest, awarded the gold key of the Foundation to Hazel Braswell, winner of the local contest.

The High School World Peace Study and Speaking Program originated with a group of business men in Mount Airy, N. C., headed by Oscar Merrett, and was first offered to the high schools of the state in 1946. It is now endorsed by the University of North Carolina and the leading educators of the state. The foundation selects the subject for the year and provides the initial reference material. This year's subject: "How We May Help Obtain World Peace in the Atomic Age," will be sponsored in well over 200 high schools all over the state by various local civic organizations.

Fifty-six students in the Edenton school completed the required reference course, and wrote papers on the assigned subject in 1951. In two preliminary eliminations, this number was reduced to four, who revised their papers into speech form.

The judges officiating were Mrs. R. N. Hines, Mrs. J. O. Powers, and Superintendent John A. Holmes, all of Edenton. The program was supervised by Mrs. Mary Browning, senior instructor in English in the Edenton school.

Mrs. E. B. Edwards, Mrs. B. L. Knox and Mrs. J. A. Wheeler.

Mrs. Edward Speight, president, called the meeting to order. This was followed by the treasurer's report by Miss Aurelia Layden and secretary's report by Mrs. Zelle Ward. During the business session it was decided to have some Potoplates made up with a picture of the Methodist Church on them and the Guild members and Society members will sell them.

Miss Mamie Hogg, Spiritual Life chairman, conducted a very interesting contest on the Bible reading that the members were doing in February.

The Society was invited to meet at the parsonage with Mrs. E. B. Edwards in March.

Chowan High Juniors Select Class Play

"The Groom Said No!" a three-act comedy by Ruth and Nathan Hale, has been selected by the Junior Class of Chowan High School to be presented March 2, in the school auditorium.

The play is being produced under the direction of Miss Louise Wilson. For the past two weeks members of the cast have been diligently studying their lines.

The leading roles of Steve Cameron and Lt. Shirley Anderson have been taken by Larry Hollowell and Sue Hollowell. They will be ably supported by the following: Mary Elizabeth Whiteman, Jane Goodwin, Dorothy Boyce, Fred Winslow, Paige Perry, Roger Bunch, Kathleen Byrum, Jean Spivey and Durward Bateman.

Local Negro Talent Displayed At Library

A unique plan was used by the Brown-Carver Library in observance of Negro History Week February 18. The plan stressed resources of local talent which was beautifully displayed. Photographs representing the Negro in music, public school teaching, medicine, religion, beauty culture and businesses of various forms were artistically displayed.

Original paintings were among the many arts and crafts exhibited. Many members of the community were represented by pastries, various forms of needle work and posters.

The exhibit shed much light on the many local talents which are present in the community.

Between the hours of 2:00 and 6:00 P. M., many people visited the library.

Methodist Society Has Regular Meeting

The Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist Church held its regular meeting on Thursday evening, February 15, in the home of Mrs. J. H. Thigpen, with Mrs. A. F. Downum joint hostess.

Mrs. Roy Hassell, in charge of the program, gave a talk on "Colorful Promise in Heaven," which was followed by talks by other members: Mrs. G. A. Helms, Mrs. J. H. Thigpen,
