CELEBRATES BIRTHDAY

James Holloway was agreeably surprised Saturday night of last week when a group of friends gathered at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Ernest Lee, to celebrate his 70th birthday.

About 20 guests greeted Mr. Holloway when he entered the room after a day spent fishing. After opening a goodly number of presents the honoree cut an attractive birthday cake, which provided dessert for a buffet style dinner.

Without music life would be a mistake. —F. W. Nietzsche.

DEPENDABILITY

The green waters close over the diver's head; his lead-soled shoes drag him down thru murky depths. In a foreign, hostile element, he depends on a slender tube to bring him the air that is life.

You are assured of a service of correct appointments, and well within your means, when you call on us to officiate. You will find ours is an organization of unswerving dependability.

This Week's Poem

YOUR MAIL MAN

His back is bent from heavy loads
Of mail of every kind,
He travels many miles of roads
But yet he doesn't mind.

He likes his job of carrying mail
From everywhere to you,
He brings your letters without fail
When nothing else goes through.

When he himself is old and gray,
When one dark day he's gone,
We know that though he's far away
The mail man carries on.

We know he's gone to answer God
And carry the mail once more—
For God wrote him a letter:
"Come home, your work on earth is o'er."

IN MEMORIAM

In sad but loving memory of our dear husband, father and grandfather, John C. Saunders, who departed this life one year ago today, March 17, 1950.

A precious one from us is gone,
A voice we loved is stilled;
A place is vacant in our hearts
Which never can be filled.

Auxiliary Of St. Paul's Holds Monthly Meeting

The monthly meeting of the Women's Auxiliary of St. Paul's Church was held in the Parish House on March 8. After prayers were said Mrs. George Mack, Christian Education Chairman, introduced the speaker for the day, Mrs. John D. Palmer, president of St. Timothy's Auxiliary, Wilson. Mrs. Palmer gave a most interesting and enlightening talk on symbolism in the Episcopal Church.

Mrs. Henry Gardner, U.T.O. custodian, announced that a Corporate Communion and ingathering of the United Thank Offering will be held Thursday, March 15, at 10:30 A. M.

Mrs. W. B. Rosevear, on behalf of the Auxiliary, thanked those who cooperated so wonderfully in redoing the Parish House guild room. The room was completely redecorated and looks most attractive and inviting. A letter of thanks and appreciation from the Vestry to the Auxiliary was read. The women of the Auxiliary were highly praised for their splendid work in doing such a fine job on the room.

The Auxiliary voted unanimously to send $50 to both Camp Leach and Kanuga. Mrs. Rosevear appointed the following members to be delegates to the Auxiliary Convention to be held in Goldsboro in April: Mrs. L. A. Patterson, Mrs. George Mack, Mrs. James Wood, Mrs. John Graham and Mrs. Charles Wales, Sr.

The members of the Auxiliary voted to purchase a new two-oven stove to replace the old single-oven stove now in use. The addition of the new stove to the Parish House kitchen will be a most welcome improvement.

Miss Margaret Pruden, in checking over records of the old St. Mary's Guild of St. Paul's Church found the Guild had a balance of $63.66. Since this Guild is no longer in existence, Miss Pruden suggested that this amount be turned over to the churchyard committee to be used for beautification of the church grounds. Her motion met with full approval.

After the business meeting, the women attended Evensong in the church. This service is being held daily throughout Lent.
