

THE SENIOR NEWSLETTER

By HAZEL LEARY

Hello Friends: The first Senior biography is that of Betty Jean Letcher, younger daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Letcher, who was born in Waterboro, S. C.

During her four years here in high school, Betty has participated in such extra-curricular activities as the band, the glee club, the F. H. A., the Dramatics Club, the Beta Club (of which she is president this year), the Spotlight Staff and the annual staff.

Betty Jean Letcher

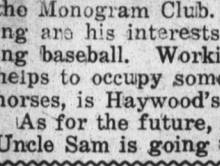

Like the rest of us, Betty hasn't definitely decided on her future plans, but she does think that she would like secretarial work.

And now on to our next biography which is that of Haywood Franklin Rogerson, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Rogerson. Haywood was born here in Edenton and has always attended school here.

He has been very interested in sports during his high school career and has played football and baseball for the last four years. Clubs of which he is or has been a member include the Stagecraft Club and the Monogram Club.

Haywood Rogerson

As for the future, Haywood says that he will have to wait and see whether Uncle Sam is going to call him before he makes any definite plans.

Capt. P. H. Bell Dies Suddenly As Result Of Heart Attack

Veteran Bridge Tender Stricken Saturday at His Home

Captain P. H. (Pat) Bell, 81, died suddenly at his home in Pembroke Circle at 8:15 o'clock Saturday morning as the result of a heart attack.

Deceased was the first bridge tender on the Chowan River Bridge when it was opened to traffic, which position he held for 20 years.

Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Lena Rogers Bell; a half sister, Mrs. J. H. F. Kearns of Washington, D. C., and a niece, Mrs. Willie Belle Moore of Edenton.

Funeral services were largely attended Sunday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock at the Ziegler Funeral Home, with the Rev. R. N. Carroll, pastor of the Edenton Baptist Church, officiating.
