

Sarah White Bride Of James R. Holland

Ceremony Performed In Smithfield, Va., on July 12

Miss Sarah Isabel White, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Addison White, became the bride of James Rogers Holland, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Rufus Holland, of Smithfield, Thursday night, July 12, at nine o'clock at the Smithfield Theatre. The double ring ceremony was performed by Rev. Alphonso Jordan, of Raleigh. Jimmy Manning, of Isle of Wight, sang "Because" and "I Love You Truly." Mrs. Mary Gale of Smithfield, was organist.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of candle-light satin with a Chantilly lace bodice and full skirt ending in a train. Her veil of illusion fell from a band of orange blossoms. Her long sleeves ended in points over her hands in which she carried a shower bouquet of Bride's Roses.

Mrs. Fred A. White, Jr., of Edenton, sister-in-law of the bride, was matron of honor. She wore a blue organdy gown and carried a nosegay of mixed spring flowers.

The attendants were Mrs. Frances Rothrock and Miss Frances Rothrock and Miss Frances Lassiter, all of Smithfield, and Miss Lina Smallwood, Miss Lottie Ann Leary and Miss Bernice Williams, all of Edenton. They wore blue, yellow, and pink gowns of organdy and carried nosegays of mixed spring flowers.

Miss Brenda Joyce Turner and Miss Shelia Kay Crocker, of Smithfield, were flower girls and carried miniature nosegays of mixed spring flowers against their white organdy dresses.

Mr. Holland had as his best man, John Alton Moore, of Smithfield. Ushers were Billy Marchant, Fred White, Jr., Jack White, Edward Roberts, Glenn Scott and Jerry Stallings.

Mrs. White, mother of the bride, wore an afternoon dress of pale blue.

A reception for the immediate family, members of the wedding party and out of town guests followed at the home of Mrs. M. W. Fulghum in Smithfield.

The couple will make their home in Smithfield.

Roy Byrd Gray Dies As Result Of Lukemia

Roy Byrd Gray, 11-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gray, died in Chowan Hospital Sunday morning at 10:30 o'clock. He had been ill for three weeks with death caused by acute lukemia. The boy this year had completed the fifth grade in the Edenton school.

Besides his parents he is survived by two brothers, Bobby and Herbie and a sister, Faye Carroll.

Funeral services were held Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock in the Baptist Church with the pastor, the Rev. R. N. Carroll, officiating. Interment was made in Beaver Hill Cemetery.

Turkey Population Is About Like Last Year

The turkey population in Chowan County appears to be about like that of 1950. Specialist Lee W. Herrick and C. W. Overman, county agent, visited 13 growers last week, observing the poults and offering suggestions for better feeding, care and management. Most growers appear to be doing an excellent job and the poults are doing nicely.
