

THE CHOWAN HERALD

Volume XIX.—Number 12.

Edenton, Chowan County, North Carolina, Thursday, March 20, 1952.

$2.00 Per Year.

Chowan's Savings Bonds Sales During February $22,001.25

Payroll Savings Plan Is Doing Three-way Job

County U. S. Savings Bonds Chairman A. B. Harless has announced that according to the monthly sales report from Allison James, State Director of Savings Bonds in Greensboro, sales of Series E, F and G Bonds in Chowan County for the month of Feb. totaled $22,001.25; of this amount $6,731.25 was in Series E Bonds; $15,170.00 in F Bonds and $100.00 in Series G Bonds.

The total figures for North Carolina's 100 counties were as follows: Series E Bonds $2,788,784.50; Series F $157,065.00; Series G $515,300.00; totaling $3,461,149.50. The Series E Bond sales in North Carolina for February exceeded the same period last year by $18,990.00. The first two months' E Bond sales in 1952 exceeded the same period last year by $76,295.00.

The county chairman stated that business, industrial, banking and agriculture leaders throughout the nation, and in the state are strongly endorsing the Defense Bond program. In February hundreds of industrial, business and trade magazines featured the picture and statement by the president of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States, Mr. Dechard A. Hulcy.

Mr. Hulcy said: "I urge every American employer to promote the payroll savings plan among his employees as a means of building a reservoir of savings." He said that the Payroll Savings Plan is doing a three-way job by building a reservoir of savings and future purchasing power, contributing to America's defense effort, helping to maintain America's economic stability by providing a check on inflationary tendencies.

102 Arrested By Police In February

27 Hailed In Court For Not Having City Auto License Plates

According to Chief of Police Geo. I. Dail, Edenton police made 102 arrests during the month of February. Of this number 98 were found guilty as charged. Those arrested included 56 white males, nine white females, 39 colored males and no colored females. Fines amounted to $165, costs $449 or a total of $614, of which $217 was turned back to the town in way of officers' fees.

Miscellaneous traffic violations led arrests with 38, followed with 27 for having no city automobile license, 17 drunks and 10 speeding violators.

During the month police answered 46 calls, investigated two accidents, worked two funerals, found 28 street lights out, extended 15 courtesies, found 10 doors unlocked, made 15 investigations, answered two fire calls, issued 450 citations and made 645 radio calls, being on the air 55 minutes.

Safety Film Shown At Rotary Meeting

At the Rotary Club meeting Thursday afternoon a safety film, "The Closed Book," was shown by Bernard Parker of Elizabeth City, district manager for the Farm Bureau Insurance Company. Mr. Parker was introduced by Thomas Byrum, who had charge of the program.

Before the film was shown Gibson Brickle was inducted as a new member of the club.

Steering Committee Elects Group Officers

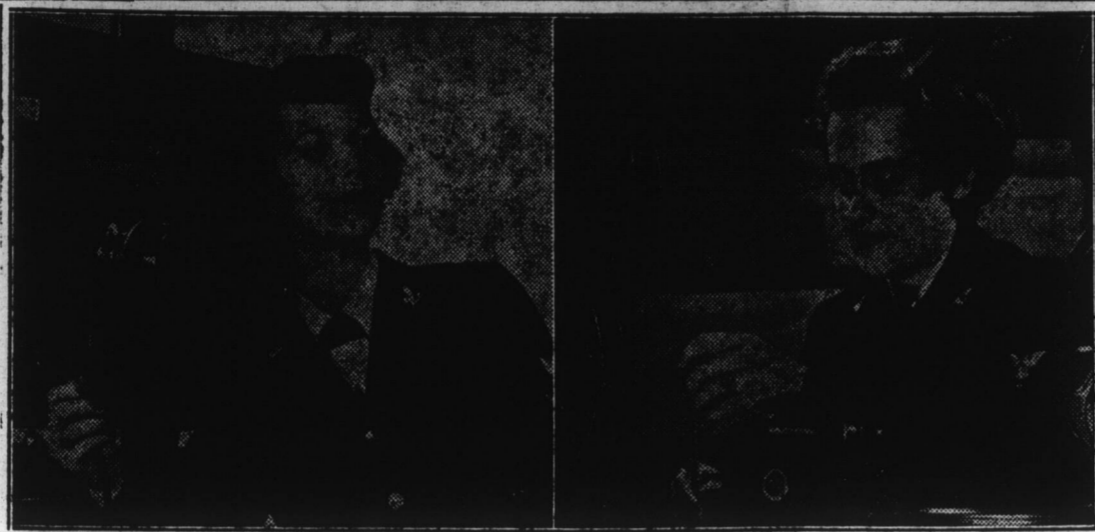

Enterprise community development steering committee met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Will Harrell on Monday night. Steering committee officers were elected and are as follows: Chairman, W. A. Harrell; vice chairman, Lloyd C. Bunch; secretary, Mrs. Beverly Harrell; and reporter, Mrs. Rodney Harrell.

Other members of the committee are Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Goodwin, Mr. and Mrs. Russell H. Byrum, Mrs. Will Harrell and Mrs. Lloyd Bunch.

Band Concert At Rocky Hock School

The Edenton High School Band will give a free concert in the Rocky Hock School auditorium on Thursday night, March 20, at 8:00 o'clock. The public is invited to attend.

It is hoped that this concert will stimulate interest in high school bands and possibly bands be started in rural sections.

WOMEN IN THE MILITARY SERVICES—After graduation from one of the military technical schools WACS, WAVES, WAFS and Women Marines are assigned to duties utilizing their training and given opportunities for advancement in their field. Left, WAVE Barbara Crowley, of Fullerton, Calif., assumes a professional pose while taking portraits; right, WAVE Julia Harbit, of Ellwood, Ind., splicing 35-MM motion picture film in Naval Photographic Center. (Released by the Department of Defense.)

Juniors Of Chowan High Will Present "Old Home Town"

Play Scheduled In Auditorium of School Tonight

Thursday night in the high school auditorium, the Juniors of Chowan High School will present their play, "The Old Home Town," a comedy-drama by Vicent J. Barrett, with permission of The Art Craft Play Company of Cedar Rapids, Iowa.

The action of the play revolves around the Irving family of father, mother, daughter, and high school son. Unbeknownst to his wife, Henry Irving is in financial difficulties. His son, Andy, is very much interested in the new neighbor, June Miller. His daughter, Alice, has just returned from New York City disappointed that her first novel was not a success; but happy to find that an old flame, Clark Kent, a bank cashier, is still in love with her, and not with Carol Brewster, the banker's daughter. Tom Irving, Henry's brother, is a photographer by profession but a practical joker by choice.

There is much excitement throughout the play. The audience will love these true-to-life characters and a night of good entertainment is guaranteed for all.

The cast is composed of the following: Henry Irving, a small town druggist, Sherlon Layton; Irene, his wife, Sarah Morris; Andy, their high school age son, Tommy Hollowell; Alice, their ambitious daughter, Julia Leary; Tom, Henry's bachelor brother, Stanford Perry; June Miller, a new neighbor, Shirley Parks; Clark Kent, Alice's former sweetheart, Douglas Leary; Carol Brewster, the banker's daughter, Marjorie Davidson.

Goodly Number At Edenton PTA Meeting

At the meeting of the Edenton Parent-Teacher Association held last week many were on hand to enjoy a delicious turkey dinner served in the cafeteria at the new high school. No business was transacted, Mrs. Eric Haste, president, devoting the entire time to the program.

The principal speaker for the occasion was the Rev. R. N. Carroll, pastor of the Baptist Church, who spoke on the subject "The Responsibility of the Home and School For Citizenship Training."

Superintendent John A. Holmes also spoke briefly on the importance of the PTA.

Special guests were Edenton School trustees, and Mrs. P. J. Sheehy, leader of the Edenton Girl Scout troop.

Music for the occasion was furnished by Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Mooney.

Special Event Friday Night In Parish House

Friday night at 6 o'clock in St. Paul's Parish House a supper and two moving pictures will be presented under the sponsorship of the Laymen's League.

The pictures to be filmed are an episode in the life of St. Paul and Harry Wisner covering the 1952 Sugar Bowl football game between Tennessee and Maryland.

First Snow

Edenton and the Albemarle area experienced its first snow of the winter Saturday. Flakes began falling about 7:30 o'clock in the morning and continued until late in the afternoon, covering everything with a sheet of white.

Due to the fact that the ground was wet the snow was not very long in vanishing and by Sunday afternoon little evidence remained of the season's first snowfall.

Amateur Hour

The PTA of Rocky Hock School is sponsoring an amateur hour in the school auditorium on Wednesday night, March 26, at 8:00 o'clock. First, second and third prizes will be awarded.

A small admission will be charged and the public is cordially invited to attend.

Local FHA Girls Will Attend Rally In Raleigh Saturday

Kitty Campen Will Be Installed as State Historian

Six members of the Edenton chapter of the FHA attended the State Rally in Raleigh on Saturday, March 22. The members attending will be Kitty Campen, who will be installed as the State Historian and Jackie Wallace, Margaret Parrish, Marian Goodwin, Libby Small, Marlene Miller and advisor, Miss Miriam Scott.

One of the highlights of the day will be the guest speaker, Senor de la Rosa, from Mexico, who will describe home life and conditions of Mexico as compared with similar conditions of the United States. In the afternoon the FHA girls have been invited to the Governor's Mansion for tea.

Hospital Auxiliary Will Meet Friday

Cpl. Billy V. Leazer Will Present Piano Concert

The Chowan Hospital Auxiliary will meet in the nurses' home Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Mrs. Wesley Chesson, Jr., president of the Auxiliary, states that some very important business is scheduled to come before the Auxiliary, so that she urges a large attendance.

A feature of the meeting will be a piano concert by Cpl. Billy C. Leazer, assistant to the Chaplain at the Edenton Marine Corps Auxiliary Air Station. The program committee feels very fortunate in securing Cpl. Leazer to play at the meeting and hopes all of the members will be able to attend.

Civilians Invited To Base Bingo Parties

Announcement is made that bingo parties will be held at the NCO Club at the Edenton Marine Corps Auxiliary Air Station every Tuesday night, starting at 7:30 o'clock.

Civilian couples are especially invited to these parties and those in charge hope many will attend. Signs are posted on the base showing the way to the NCO Club, which is near the hangar.

Storm Delays 4-H Shipment Of Chicks

Several 4-H Club members received their project chicks last week. All the chicks did not arrive, and the remainder will be sent this week. C. M. Harris, operator of Harris' R. O. P. Hatchery, Valdese, N. C., informed the County Agent's office that the storm early Monday morning tore down the power lines, with the result that he lost 2,000 baby chicks. The power source was cut off just at the time they were breaking through the shells, and 2,000 of them were a complete loss. Chicks will be delivered to the club members as soon as they are received at the County Agent's office.

Edenton Lions Begin Practice For Annual Minstrel On April 4th

Some of Town's Best Talent Will Take Part In Show at School

Rehearsals for the annual Lions Club minstrel, which is to be held on the stage of the school auditorium on Friday night, April 4, were begun Monday night.

Members of the club ran through the musical selections to be used in the show. J. Clarence Leary is in charge of the musical portion of the show.

Nick George, general minstrel chairman, predicts another outstanding show this year and revealed that he has lined up some of the town's most outstanding talent for this minstrel.

Some of the feature acts slated for the show will be given by the Treble-Clef Club, Norman Leonard, Three Bows and a Knot, Frank Williams, Charlie Swanner and his string band, the Sign Pine Symphonette, Betsy Duncan and Shirley Keeter.

Ernest "Bug" Ward will be the interlocutor for the show. The names of the end men have not as yet been announced.

Annual Meeting Of Baptist WMU Will Be Held April 2nd

Two Sessions Scheduled At Ballard's Bridge Baptist Church

The forty-eighth annual meeting of the Woman's Missionary Union of the Chowan Baptist Association will be held at the Ballard's Bridge Church Wednesday, April 2. Two sessions will be held, the morning session starting at 8:45 o'clock and the afternoon session at 1:30 o'clock.

Those taking part on the morning program are Mrs. T. O. Asbell, Mrs. C. D. Gregory, Mrs. C. T. Doughtie, Miss Ruth Provence, Mrs. J. S. Johnson, Mrs. Sam Mayo, Mrs. R. N. Carroll and Dr. L. H. Dawson. Special music by C. W. Overman.

On the afternoon program will be Mrs. Bela Udvarnoki, Mrs. C. W. Ward, Mrs. O. C. Turner, Dr. F. Orin Mixon, Mrs. Ernest Sanders, Mrs. Sam Mayo and the Rev. Lee A. Phillips. Special music will be furnished by Chowan College.

Billy Gray Leary On College Historical Tour

Billy Gray Leary, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stillman Leary, Route 1, Edenton, has been selected to go on an eight-day historical tour, sponsored by the International Relations Club of Mars Hill College, March 15-23.

The purpose of the tour is to give the students an opportunity to study firsthand places related to the early history of the nation, to see something of the government at work, and to observe something of the work of the United Nations.

The itinerary of the group, comprising 26 students and three members of the faculty, will be as follows: Charlottesville, Alexandria, Arlington, Mt. Vernon, Richmond, Williamsburg, and Jamestown, in Virginia; visits to the Capitol, the White House, Library of Congress, Supreme Court, and other places of national interest, including a meeting of Congress, in Washington; points of interest in Philadelphia and Eastern Pennsylvania; visits to the civic, financial, and maritime districts, and the educational centers of New York, attending a session of the Security Council of the United Nations.

District Meeting Of BPW Clubs Will Be Held Here Sunday

Guest Minister

REV. W. TWYMAN WILLIAMS
As guest minister for the observance of Religious Emphasis Week, the Rev. W. Twyman Williams will preach in the local Presbyterian Church each night, except Saturday, from March 23 to March 30.

Special Services At Presbyterian Church

March 23 to 30 Observed As Religious Emphasis Week

The General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church (South) will observe a special season of evangelistic endeavor March 23 to April 13. In this connection the Edenton Presbyterian congregation will observe religious emphasis week by holding services at the church each night March 23-30, at 8 o'clock.

The pastor of the local church, the Rev. Herman L. Cathey, says the church has the good fortune to engage as a guest minister for the series of sermons the Rev. W. Twyman Williams, D. D., of Hampden-Sydney College and Appomattox, Va., who will come to open the sermon next Sunday night, March 23. He will preach each night during the week, except Saturday night.

Dr. Williams is a native of Woodstock, Va., and an alumnus of Washington and Lee University of Lexington, Va. He was educated for the ministry at Union Theological Seminary, Richmond, Va. His university bestowed on him the honorary degree of Doctor of Divinity. Dr. Williams held very successful pastorates in Lynchburg, Va., and at Hampden-Sydney College in Virginia. At present he occupies the historic Presbyterian Church of Appomattox Court House, Va. He is in demand frequently for lectures and preaching as an evangelist pastor. It will be a treat to be able to attend the services to hear his truly gospel messages.

Scheduled Meetings Of Baptist Circles

Circles of the Woman's Missionary Society of the Edenton Baptist Church will meet at the following times and places:

Monday afternoon, March 24, at 3:30 o'clock—Sophie Laneau Circle with Mrs. D. M. Warren; Ruby Daniels Circle with Mrs. E. W. Bond; R. T. Bryan with Mrs. Walter Hollowell.

Monday night, March 24, at 7:30 o'clock—Ola Lea Circle at the church; Mary Powell with Mrs. Mary Grey Leary.

Monday night, March 24, at 8 o'clock—H. H. McMillan Circle with Mrs. Carey Bunch.

Tuesday night, March 25, at 7:30 o'clock—Anne Bagley Circle with Mrs. R. N. Carroll; Vivian Nowell Circle with Mrs. Helen Byrum.

Antique Shop Opening Wednesday, March 26

Mrs. R. F. Elliott announces the opening of her antique shop which will take place at her home, 206 West Eden Street, Wednesday, March 26, from 10 A. M. to 6 P. M.

Mrs. Elliott has recently received a shipment of attractive antique items and she extends a cordial invitation, to the general public, to attend the opening of her new shop.

Session Will Begin At 12 O'Clock In Hotel Joseph Hewes

SOCIAL HOUR

About 125 Ladies From Eighth District Expected To Attend

Approximately 125 ladies are expected here Sunday to attend the Annual Eighth District meeting of the Business and Professional Woman's Club, which will be held in the Hotel Joseph Hewes dining room with the Edenton Club as hostesses.

Activities will begin at 12 o'clock, noon with registration. Prior to the luncheon and business session, which will get underway at 1 o'clock, a social hour will be held so that members may become better acquainted with each other.

The meeting will open with the club collect, followed by the invocation by Miss Beulah Perry. Featuring the musical program will be selections by the Junior Boys' Choir, with the Rev. Gordon Bennett as director, and solos by Jack Mooney, with Mrs. Mooney at the piano.

Mrs. Corie B. White, president of the Edenton Club, will give the address of welcome and the response will be made by Mrs. Lula E. Sumner of Elizabeth City.

Mrs. Alice Towle, District Director, will preside during the district business meeting, and Miss Lena Jones will be in charge of the presentation of attendance prizes. The meeting will come to a close with the benediction.

Annual John Deere At School Tonight

Big Free Show Sponsored By Hobbs Implementation Co.

No less than six brand-new movies are on the program for the annual John Deere Day show to be held for farmers and their wives tonight (Thursday) at the Elementary School auditorium, according to Guy C. Hobbs, local John Deere dealer and sponsor of the affair. Farmers who have not yet received their tickets, reminds Mr. Hobbs, may obtain them by calling for them at the Hobbs Implementation Company at Edenton.

The shows will start at 8 P. M. The feature picture, "Galahad Jones," features Richard Crane, Marjorie Lord, Elizabeth Patterson, Jonathan Hale, Ed Brophy, and four other Hollywood personalities. The story centers around a farmer's son, recently graduated from law school, who thwarts the efforts of a big-time crook to profit from his political connections. It is a present-day problem picture with a moral and plenty of laughs.

Leading the pack of five more applause-winning films is "The Big Payoff," featuring Tom Gordon who, along with his typical American family, has won so many friends in previous John Deere pictures. The four films that complete the parade of entertainment offer something new and different in dealing with subjects close to the hearts of today's farmers.

"Those who attend this year's John Deere Day," says Mr. Hobbs, "have a real treat in store for them, a day so packed with entertainment for the entire family that they will remember it with pleasure for months to come."

Fred Haney Speaker At Optometrists' Meeting

Fred Haney, editor of the Elizabeth City Daily Advance, was the principal speaker at the monthly meeting of the Northeastern Optometric Society held Wednesday night of last week at Hotel Joseph Hewes.

Mr. Haney complimented the optometrists for inaugurating a public relations program which will be more understanding to the public and designed to put the organization in its just place in the professional world. The meeting was presided over by Dr. Julian Selig of Elizabeth City, the president.

ROTARY MEETS TODAY

Edenton's Rotary Club will meet this (Thursday) afternoon at 1 o'clock in the Parish House. President J. L. Chestnut urges a 100 per cent attendance.