

Firemen Of Edenton Annual Get-Together Held Thursday Night

Tribute Paid to Veteran Fire Chief R. K. Hall And His Firemen

Edenton's Fire Department held its annual banquet and get-together in the fire station Thursday night of last week. Practically every member of the Fire Department and their wives were present, together with a group of town officials and their wives as special guests, when a barbecue chicken dinner was served by Chub Goodman.

Edenton's veteran fire chief, R. K. Hall, presided and after the meal called upon quite a few ladies and men to make a few remarks. Many expressions of tribute to Mr. Hall, who holds the reputation of being the oldest active fire chief in the United States. The firemen, too, were recipients of warm words of praise for their ability and efficiency in fighting fires and the splendid cooperation and good fellowship which prevails among the members of the Fire Department.
