

Capt. Gilbert Hershey Is Injured In Korea

Wife of Former Miss Frances Overton of Edenton

Herald readers will be interested to know that Marine Captain Gilbert R. Hershey, son of Maj. Gen. Lewis B. Hershey, director of Selective Service, was recently seriously wounded in Korea. Captain Hershey's wife is the former Miss Frances Overton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gus Overton of Chowan County.

According to reports, Captain Hershey was wounded in the chest, neck and upper legs and was moved to the hospital ship USS Repose for further treatment.

Captain Hershey, whose wife and daughter live in San Clement, Cal., was in the thick of heavy fighting in Korea immediately after the war started. He later returned to this county and was assigned as an instructor at Quantico, Va., but on his insistent request was sent back to Korea in June. He had been in heavy action at Bunker Hill.

William E. Roberts Ends Basic Training

William E. Roberts, 18, son of Mrs. Elizabeth Roberts, is completing his AF basic airmen indoctrination course at Lackland Air Force Base, the "Gateway to the Air Force."

Lackland, situated near San Antonio, is the world's largest air force base, site of Air Force basic training, for men and women, headquarters of the Human Resource Research Center, and home of AF's Officer Candidate School.

His basic training is preparing him for entrance into Air Force technical training and for assignment in specialized work. The course includes a scientific evaluation of his aptitude and inclination for following a particular vocation and career.
