

WASHINGTON—The past few days have been particularly busy ones for me. The Senate has been in session until eleven o'clock each evening. I have had at least two committee meetings daily, each lasting for an hour or more. There was a hurried trip to New York to participate in a radio broadcast devoted to a discussion of our new Immigration Law.

But topping it off was the convention here of the Daughters of the American Revolution. It was wonderful to see so many of our own gracious ladies from North Carolina. Mrs. Smith and I invited the North Carolina group to a get-together in the Capitol last Thursday, and that night I had the privilege of addressing the convention at Constitution Hall.

I have always been impressed by the loyalty and patriotism of these women. This year there is added reason for respecting their judgment. The ladies elected Miss Gertrude Carraway of New Bern as president general. Miss Carraway has devoted 23 years of hard work to the DAR and it was a tribute to her that she was unopposed for the organization's highest office.

TALK DRONES ON

The filibuster continues as this is written—a filibuster conducted by the very Senators who are always so quick to point accusing fingers at Southern Senators who defend the practice of unlimited debate.

Now that the shoe is on the other foot, these ultra-liberal forces claim that they are not filibustering. They say that they are "educating the public." It is doubtful that they are accomplishing much other than a test of their ability at oratory.

We had a number of school groups to visit the office during the week. Seniors from Salisbury, Whiteville and Aycock came to see me in the reception room just off the Senate floor at about the same time one afternoon last week. While they were there, a photographer from The New York Times spotted the large group and decided to make a picture of them for his newspaper. So North Carolina's young folks may get some unexpected publicity.

It's impossible to see everyone who comes to the office, so I just have to do the best I can. Almost everyone understands, however, that Senators have to be out of their offices most of the time attending committee meetings and Senate sessions.

For instance, last week I was engaged in two sets of hearings for the Judiciary Committee. Part of the time I was presiding over the committee sessions. Therefore, unless visitors got to my office before 9:30 A. M., or came after dark, there was not much chance of my seeing them.

But, Mr. Helms, Mr. Slear and the young ladies in the office are always ready and anxious to render any service they possibly can. Most of the matters in which visitors are interested can be handled by someone in the office, as we try to have someone familiar with the various departments of the government who can render service on short notice.

TWO PROBLEMS

We are now working on two matters of considerable interest to our State. One concerns the proposed expansion of Fort Bragg. The other concerns the Blue Ridge Parkway.

The people of Hoke County have been greatly disturbed by the Army's announced plans to take over 50,000 acres of their land to establish a corridor between Fort Bragg and Camp Backall. It is agreed by everybody that such a move would destroy Hoke County as a unit of government. In

VERSATILE COTTON!

The 1953 Maid of Cotton, Alice Carr of Selma, Ala., shows how versatile cotton can be when she wears this fashionable ensemble made from bedspread cottons. Toni Owen, noted New York designer, used Bates sculptured bedspread cotton for the camisole and heavy cord bedspread cotton for the full skirt and trim jacket.

In addition, the State's tuberculosis sanatorium at McCain would be rendered virtually useless in the opinion of the officials connected with the institution.

The booming of the big guns near the hospital would not, they say, be conducive to the rapid recovery of tubercular patients. Since it would cost about $15 million to replace the hospital, Governor Umstead and the State Legislature feel that the government ought to make some provision for moving the hospital to some other section of the State.

I have requested that our people be given an opportunity to appear before the Senate Armed Services Committee to state our case before this plan is approved. I have been assured by the committee that such a hearing will be conducted. Also we probably will appear before the Senate Military Appropriations subcommittee.

As for the Blue Ridge Parkway, Senator Hoey and I are working to have an appropriation provided for completing this project. No money whatsoever for new construction on the parkway was included in the budget recommendations.

The parkway will bring thousands of tourists and millions of dollars into our State each year. Since the government has spent so much already on the parkway, it seems to me to be "penny wise and pound foolish" to fail to provide the relatively small amount necessary to complete the project.

Mrs. Mary E. Copeland Dies After Long Illness

Mrs. Mary E. Copeland, 69, died at her home in the Small's Cross Roads section Saturday night at 10:50 o'clock after an illness of two years. (Surviving are her husband, H. T. Copeland; two sons, Kelma E. Copeland of Norfolk, Ralph E. Copeland of Beckley, W. Va.; three brothers, William Lane of Princess Ann, Va., James Edward Lane of Portsmouth, Otis M. Lane of Chapanoke, N. C.; two sisters, Mrs. Ethel Perry of Hertford and Mrs. Thelma Peele of Norfolk. Three grandchildren also survive.

Funeral services were held Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock at Ballard's Bridge Baptist Church, of which she was a member. The pastor, the Rev. Ralph W. Knight, officiated and burial was in the churchyard.

Kidney Slow-Down May Bring Restless Nights

When kidney function slows down, many folks complain of nagging backache, headaches, dizziness and loss of pep and energy. Don't suffer restless nights with these discomforts if reduced kidney function is getting you down—due to such common causes as stress and strain, over-exertion or exposure to cold. Minor bladder irritations due to cold, dampness or wrong diet may cause getting up nights or frequent passages. Don't neglect your kidneys if these conditions bother you. Try Doan's Pills—a mild diuretic. Used successfully by millions for over 50 years. While often otherwise caused, it's amazing how many times Doan's give happy relief from these discomforts—help the 15 miles of kidney tubes and filters flush out waste. Get Doan's Pills today!
