Worth Layton Honored At Party Tuesday Night

Worth Layton, general handy man at Chowan Hospital, was honor guest Tuesday night, when personnel of the hospital arranged a party in honor of his birthday.

Back of the nurses' home a fish fry was served which included all the trimmings and as a dessert a birthday cake and home-made ice cream was served.

In the neighborhood of 25 friends enjoyed the occasion, and Mr. Layton received quite a few presents. A feature of the evening was a fish tale contest with Mr. Layton, Lonnie Bunch, Frank Hughes and J. Edwin Bufflap as contestants. The latter won the contest and as a prize he was dressed in one of the nurse's pajamas. It was a delightful affair throughout and hard to determine if Mr. Layton or his friends enjoyed the party most.
