A LIFT FOR TODAY

★ The Lord bless thee, and keep thee; the Lord make his face to shine upon thee, and be gracious unto thee; the Lord lift up his countenance upon thee, and give thee peace. — Nu. 6: 24, 25, 26.

IF WE in America would unite in a prayer for all mankind, it would go far toward bringing harmony into our world, and we would be blessed also.

Almighty God, forgive us for our indifference toward those who know Thee not. May we ever pray for men everywhere.

We'll Pay Sooner Or Later

On Saturday, October 3, citizens of North Carolina will have an opportunity and indeed a privilege to vote on a bond issue which, if carried, will be of inestimable value to schools and mental institutions in the State. The voters will, by their ballots, decide if 50 million dollars shall be used to improve, enlarge and build schools and 22 million dollars to improve the mental institutions.

There will, of course, be many people who will oppose the bond issue on account of the tax bugaboo, but locally, at least, money will ere long have to be secured to enlarge school facilities so that sooner or later Chowan County will have to fork up and then on a greatly enlarged scale.

On the other hand, if the bond issue passes, Chowan County stands in good stead to secure enough state money to do what work will be necessary.

'Tis true that schools have been built and enlarged in Chowan County, but in a short space of time conditions have become so crowded that more room is already needed, and this condition will become more aggravated as time goes on, so that sooner or later the county will be obliged to make an outlay for school purposes.

It's strange how some people howl about paying taxes. In some cases a few dollars in taxes for schools might apparently bankrupt a complaining taxpayer when at the same time a much larger amount must be paid Uncle Sam in way of income tax. Isn't it better to pay taxes locally, which are deductible from incomes, wherein the community directly benefits than to send the very same money to be spent on a national scale.

One thing is certain. Chowan County will sooner or later be forced to spend money on schools. If some or all of this money comes from the bond issue, it is obvious that the burden on the county will be far less than if the bond issue is defeated and the county itself will have to shoulder the expenditures involved.

Voters should think seriously about the bond issue and, of course, go to the polls on October 3 to register their wishes.

One reason people are so easy to fool is that few of them really seek out the truth.

It is amazing how much time two people can waste trying to shift one person's work between them.

The reason some people don't stick to the truth is that such a policy would eliminate a lot of conversation.

HEARD & SEEN

By "BUFF"

Friday's calamity, when two people were shot to death, cast a pall of sorrow over the entire community, possibly more than any previous misfortune in recent years. Having some few years ago gone through an ordeal equally as heart-breaking, I can realize the sorrow experienced by members of both families. I want, therefore, to extend my sympathy to bereaved relatives and friends and especially Mrs. Irene Dunbar, who is left alone with her family and the extra responsibility of managing two business concerns, the Western Auto Associate Store and the Western Gas Service. Both business concerns will continue in operation under the direction of Mrs. Dunbar, who says there will be no change in personnel or policy. Mrs. Dunbar will learn that time will, to some extent, heal her wounds and she, too, will realize that in Edenton she will find a host of friendly and sympathetic people ever ready to be of any assistance, which will also help to make her burden lighter.

Mrs. Jimmy Crumney misused a little one day last week. She opened an egg and when the contents dropped in a frying pan she found three yokes. She sent the friend eggs to The Herald office for me to see, but where she misused was that they arrived just after I had eaten dinner. Had she sent 'em an hour earlier maybe it would not have been necessary for me to go home for dinner. Anyway, with eggs selling at 75 cents per dozen, I'd like to buy a dozen or so of the same kind of eggs.

Percy Perry narrowly missed getting shot or beat up the other day during the hot spell. Willard Rhoades was climbing up a ladder in front of his shoe shop to fix an awning and when he reached the top the telephone rang. Rhoades on three successive trips up and down the ladder finally recognized Percy's voice over the phone. Percy was sitting in the Chowan Motor Company office and could see Rhoades as he made the trips up and down the ladder, but the fun ended on the third telephone call.

And speaking about hot weather, isn't the change the last few days a pleasant relief?

Barlow Harrell, who quite often would welcome a ride from down town to North Edenton, said the other day that a lot of people look mighty lonesome with only one person in a car with two seats. The trouble is that Barlow has to hold his brief case with one hand and his cigar with the other so that he cannot give the sign that he wants a ride.

Errol Flynn lost a new seamless brown leather billfold in the ball park, which contained an identification card social security number, $22 belonging to the Virginian-Pilot and $6.00 of his personal money. He says he will pay a reward of $5.00 if returned to The Herald office. Pretty tough for the young fellow to have to dig up 22 bucks which didn't belong to him. Anybody find the billfold? Why not make young Flynn happy?

Rocky Hock and Colerain will play a five-game series with the first two games scheduled on Hicks Field Friday and Saturday nights. Old Man Baseball will soon pass out of the picture to make room for football. The Edenton Aces will play their first game Friday night, September 18, with Columbia. How about dropping around to see 'em play?

With the schools now in session, teachers back after a summer vacation, and a lot of other people through with vacations, things are again getting back to normal in Edenton. The school teachers are glad to get back and Edenton is just as glad to have 'em in our midst.

Every time I have company and take 'em fishing, it is necessary for my friends to buy a day's fishing license, and just about every time no fish are caught. Might try taking 'em without a license, but then the game warden surely would turn up.

Gene Harrell Wins Poultry Sale Honor

Six 4-H Club Members Participated in Show and Sale

Thursday of last week six proud 4-H Club members each exhibited and sold 12 pullets of their 4-H Club project. These club members were each given 100 Parmenter pullet chicks by the Berkley Feed Company of Norfolk, Va. In return for the chicks the club members agreed to properly house, brood, feed and otherwise care for these chicks. They also agreed to bring 12 of their better grade pullets to the show and sale.

W. G. Andrews, poultry specialist, State College, judged the pullets. Prizes were awarded by H. R. Hill, of the Berkley Feed Company. Contestants whose pullets were placed in the blue ribbon class were awarded $10.00 each and the contestant who won a white ribbon was awarded $5.00. After the show the pullets were sold at auction.

Gene Harrell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Percy Harrell, of the Cannon's Ferry community, won grand champion. His birds were bought by Gaither Cartwright, of Elizabeth City, at $2.70 per bird. This was the highest price paid for any pullets at the sale. The average price per bird was $2.45 which is considerably better than some of the sales in the past.

Chowan club members who participated in the Seventh Annual 4-H Poultry Project are: Wesley and Millard Layden, Barbara Anne Jordan, Lloyd White, Jr., Joseph Wiggins and Gene Harrell.

The Chowan Extension Service and the club members wish to express their appreciation to H. R. Hill and the Berkley Feed Company for their sponsoring this contest.
