

Chowan Farm Bureau Membership Drive Is Now In Full Swing

President Lonnie Harrell Urges 100% Contact of Families

The Chowan County Farm Bureau started its 1954 membership drive on Wednesday night of last week with a kick-off dinner for the workers held at the Chowan Community Building. The Oak Grove Home Demonstration Club served a barbecue dinner, which was thoroughly enjoyed. Alonzo Edwards, past president of the N. C. Farm Bureau and Green County Representative to the Legislature, gave a most informative and inspirational address to the workers preparatory for the drive.

Mr. Edwards pointed out that farmers in Chowan County, or in any other county, cannot afford to sit idly by and not do their part by being a member of a farm organization which is working in every way for farm people. Bill Little, district Farm Bureau representative, distributed to the workers the membership drive materials and explained how to use them. President Lonnie Harrell was in charge of the meeting and urged his workers to get out and contact every farm family in their community immediately, within the next three days, and by all means complete a 100 per cent contact within a week's time.
