

Ricks Speaker At Lions Club Meeting

Discusses Need In Edenton For Service Men's USO Club

James P. Ricks appeared before the members of the Edenton Lions Club at their regular meeting Monday night in the interest of the establishment of a United Service Organization unit here for the benefit of service men stationed at the local Marine Corps Auxiliary Landing Field.

Ricks explained that recreational facilities for service men in this area is very limited and an effort is being made by interested local citizens to have a survey made of Edenton's recreation facilities by the regional director of the U. S. O. Endorsement of the project by local civic clubs and churches is necessary for such a survey to be made and Ricks requested the Lions Club to write a letter to the regional director requesting that a survey be made. The Club went on record as endorsing a U. S. O. unit in Edenton and offered its moral support to the project.

Guests at the meeting Monday night were Hugh Nelson and John Goodwin, Jr.

Encouraging Report On County Home

Property Leased to Mr. And Mrs. J. B. Jackson For Boarding Home

Chowan County Commissioners at their meeting Monday morning considered the last Grand Jury report, which recommended that the Commissioners give serious consideration to the erection of a new and suitable county home. The report stated that the condition of the home was satisfactory but generally inadequate.

The Commissioners pointed out that the County Home is not operated as such, but rather as a boarding home and that the property has been leased to Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Jackson, who will board the indigent of the county.

In connection with the home before leasing to Mr. and Mrs. Jackson, the County Commissioners made considerable improvements and an inspection made by K. J. Eyer, sanitarian of the District Health Department, resulted in a very encouraging report. Mr. Eyer inspected the water supply, sewage disposal facilities, bedrooms, lighting, screening, food handling, garbage and trash disposal, bedding, bathing facilities, rodent control, fire protection and the premises in general. Sanitarian Eyer had no complaint to register in connection with the inspection.

Now In Building on N.E. Corner of Oakum and Church Streets

Chowan County Commissioners at their meeting Monday morning authorized J. B. Small, Negro County Agent, to rent the first floor of the building on the northeast corner of Oakum and Church Streets to house the offices for the county agent and home demonstration agent.

The offices were formerly located on the second floor in the building on the northwest corner, and the change was authorized due to the crowded condition and general unsatisfactory conditions for the two agents.

The last report of the Grand Jury also referred to the offices as being too crowded.

J. B. Small and Mrs. Onnie Charlton, home agent, appeared to be very much delighted in the change and plan to make the new offices more convenient and attractive for those whom they serve.

Senior Hi-Light

By EDNA BOSWELL

The Senior Class is still busily working on the Annual. At present, the project is progressing very well. We are fortunate to have Mrs. Herbert Hollowell as Annual advisor and Ben Browning as editor-in-chief.

The two Seniors selected to be introduced to you this week are Shirley Ann Winslow and Gerald Thomas Lassiter.

Shirley was born in Hartford on October 23, 1935, and moved to Edenton at the age of 11. Her parents are Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Winslow. Shirley participates in various organizations such as the Tri-Hi-Y and the Treble Clef Club. She likes to sing, dance, collect material for her scrapbook and, of course, get letters from Illinois. Although she is a little undecided about her future, she thinks she will attend a business school.

Son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Lassiter, Gerald has lived in Edenton since his birth on December 21, 1934. Besides playing football and baseball, he is a member of the Boys' Monogram Club. His chief interests are taking part in sports and working in the Edenton Cotton Mill. Upon graduation Gerald will join the Air Force.

Post for sponsoring the fair, which he stated compared favorably with other fairs he had seen. He also was high in praise of the fair's theme and but who preferred to continue to mould the lives of our boys and girls. "It is a thankless job," he said, "even among legislators who argue a great deal about taxes and other matters and do so little about paying liveable salaries for such a responsible profession."

In emphasizing the importance of the teaching profession Dr. Kantor said this county could be amfiliated quicker if teachers deserted their responsible jobs than by A and hydrogen bombs in the hands of an enemy. "I am optimistic enough," said Dr. Kantor, to think we will never be destroyed by the Communists so long as we can juggle the blocks to spell God."

In closing Dr. Kantor challenged the teachers to bring happiness to duty and duty to happiness in order to be the saviors of tomorrow's world.
