

Livestock Producers Use Emergency Loan

Applications Are Available at FHA Office in Hertford

More than $11,689,000 in special livestock loans has been loaned to approximately 1,190 farmers and ranchers throughout the United States and nearly 600 other applications are being considered, E. F. Morgan, Farmers Home Administration county supervisor for Chowan County and surrounding counties, reported this week.

The special livestock loan program authorized last July helps established producers of cattle, sheep and goats to maintain their herds. The producers who can borrow are those with good past records of livestock production but who are temporarily unable to get adequate credit from commercial banks, cooperative lending agencies, or other responsible sources to enable them to go ahead with normal livestock operations. They must have reasonable prospects of success with the help of a loan. Commercial feed lot operators are not included.

Applications can be made at the Farmers Home Administration office serving Chowan County located over the bus station in Hertford. Committees authorized by Secretary of Agriculture Benson approve the loans. Applications for more than $50,000 must have final approval by the Secretary of Agriculture in Washington. A borrower may use his loan funds for usual expenses of carrying on a livestock operation, including restocking his herd up to the number he held before he had to reduce his herd.

The 5 per cent loans may be amortized over a 3-year period and secured by the best lien possible on the borrower's property and his personal obligation to repay the borrowed money. Other creditors, although not asked to subordinate their claims, are expected to agree to stand by so the farmer can have a fair chance to work out of his difficulties. Agreements are made to let the farmer apply a reasonable part of his livestock income to repaying the special livestock loan.

News About Clubs In Chowan County

By MRS. IMOGENE COCHRANE
Home Demonstration Agent

There's nothing like plenty of good food to get men out to a meeting. At least it really did the trick last Friday night at the Annual Home Demonstration Club Husbands' Supper which was held at the Chowan Community Building. About 50 Home Demonstration Club members and their husbands enjoyed a delicious turkey supper with all the trimmings which was served by the Ward Home Demonstration Club. The Invocation was given by the Rev. B. L. Raines, pastor, Rocky Hock Baptist Church. The Rev. L. C. Chandler, pastor of the Center Hill Baptist Church, was guest speaker and gave a most inspiring talk following the dinner. Special music was furnished by Mrs. W. H. Saunders, Mrs. Henry Bunch, Mrs. Paul Ober, Mrs. Roland Evans and C. W. Overman, with a little assistance from the entire group. Mrs. I. E. Halsey, Home Demonstration County Council President, did a fine job as

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of our dear son, Franklin Perry, who passed away on November 24, 1952:

One year ago you left us on,
And each day we miss you more,
But we know you are safe with Jesus,
Beyond the other shore.

We get so lonesome for you sometimes,
It seems our hearts will break,
Then we remember that "God Is Love,"
And He never makes a mistake.

You were given to us by God,
As an answer to our prayer,
To Him we are thankful for that 18 years,
Our lives together to share.

If we could only see your face,
And smooth your pretty black hair,
We'd be happy in our home again,
There'd be no empty chair.

We often sit and think of you,
When we are all alone,
For we know that memory is the only thing,
That grief can call its own!

It was so hard to give you up son,
It seems we can hear your voice,
But then we know your soul's with God,
It was He who made the choice.

It all seems like a nightmare to us,
A thing we will have to live through,
The memories so sweet are many,
Although the years may be few.

They say time helps you to forget,
And will heal all your sorrow,
But time has only proven how much we miss you, son,
And the depth of our sorrow.

Your Bible is still by your bedside,
With your Sunday School Book tucked in,
At your last daily reading,
Before you met your Lord, "Your Very Best Friend."

We are waiting, just waiting, dear son,
To meet you will be a happy day,
When Jesus calls us to go with Him,
And guides us to your "Stay."

To all Mothers and Dads,
Love, cherish and lead your children in the right way
For God giveth them to us,
And it is He who taketh away.

God hath not promised skies always blue,
Flower-strewn pathways all our lives through,
God hath not promised sun without rain,
Joy without sorrow, peace without pain.

But God hath promised strength for the day,
Rest for the labor, light for the way,
Grace for the trials, help from above,
Unfailing sympathy, undying love.

By His Mother and Father,
Mr. and Mrs. John F. Perry.

Mistress of Ceremonies. Many thanks to all of those taking part on the program and to the Ward Club for the delicious supper.

We emphasize material needs—trying to give our families more things to make them happy and secure. A happy home climate where there is a feeling that family members are loved, important, appreciated can be secured only by practicing the art of living at one's best day by day.

Here are three "vitamins" that will do much to insure the happiness of each one of us: Acceptance, Affection, Appreciation.

Acceptance—Each family member feels himself or herself to be important as a person. No two people are alike. Each person wants to be accepted on his own merits.

Affection—Like sunlight and fresh air, love is essential, if we are to grow into emotionally healthy individuals.

Appreciation—The magic that makes life worthwhile. Each of us needs to feel that his efforts as well as his achievements are appreciated. Each of us needs to practice the art of praising and appreciating others. This would give us less time for complaining and criticizing.

When enthusiasm begins to lag, or the goal seems too far distant, an encouraging word or a show of interest on the part of another gives new strength for the task.

There is magic in sincere praise and appreciation. Why don't we practice it more?
