

Miss Emily Russell Bride Of C. N. Busby

Wedding Is Solemnized In Edenton Baptist Church Sunday

Miss Emily Wadley Russell, daughter of Mrs. Charles Fletcher Russell, Sr., and the late Mr. Russell, and Christopher Nutter Busby, son of Mrs. Lotan Alpha Corriher of Landis and the late John Carrol Busby of Salisbury, were united in marriage in the Edenton Baptist Church Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock. The Rev. Norman Carroll officiated.

Miss Agnes Chappell, organist, and William Taylor of Rocky Mount, tenor soloist, presented the wedding music.

The bride, given in marriage by her brother, Charles Fletcher Russell, Jr., of Suffolk, Va., wore an original wedding gown of Chantilly lace over satin with a tightly fitted bodice buttoned down the back with self covered buttons and a scalloped neck line. The long sleeves tapered to points over the hands. The bouffant skirt fell in wide panels of matching lace in front and back with extremely full poofs of tulle on the sides. Her fingertip veil of imported illusion fell from a Juliet cap of Chantilly lace embroidered with pearls. The bride wore a strand of pink cultured pearls, a gift of the bridegroom. She carried a white Bible topped with white orchids and showered with stephanotis.

The bride's sister, Miss Billie Russell of Edenton and Norfolk, Va., was maid of honor and only attendant. She wore a gown of iridescent laurel rice taffeta, fashioned with portrait neckline, formed by a fishu of taffeta, tulip bodice and bouffant peg-top skirt. Her Juliet cap of matching seed pearls was caught with a petite brooch. She carried a cascade of red roses.

Mr. Busby was attended by his brother, Philip Francioli Busby of Salisbury and Atlanta, Ga., as best man. The bridegroom had as other attendants Otho Corriher of Landis, his step-brother; Vernon Myers of Hampton, Va., brother-in-law of the bride; Barry Hambley of Salisbury and W. O. Speight II of Edenton.

Mrs. Russell, mother of the bride, wore a powder blue silk ensemble with a winter white hat trimmed in sequins, and a pink orchid corsage.

The mother of the bridegroom wore a purple wool ensemble with an orchid corsage and mauve hat embroidered with sequins.

After the ceremony the couple greeted guests in the vestibule of the church. Later Mr. and Mrs. Busby left for a wedding trip to New York and Philadelphia, and after December 3 they will reside at 42 Russ Street (Burgess Village) Caribou, Maine, where the bridegroom is stationed for a year in the Air Force.

For traveling the bride wore a novelty French import, two tone rodier wool dress with matching hat and black accessories and an orchid corsage.

Mrs. Busby graduated from the Bowman Gray School of Nursing at Winston-Salem and attended Wake Forest College, where she majored in English and education.

Mr. Busby attended the University of North Carolina, where he was attached to the NROTC unit. He was a commerce major and a member of the Phi Mu Alpha honorary musical fraternity.

John Dobson Wins Duke Scholarship

"It was a feeling beyond description," John recalls of being informed that he had won.

Other students in Edenton and Eastern North Carolina soon will be trying for the 1954 Angier Duke Prizes. This year they will be worth $1,000 a year instead of $750, and interested students have been urged to apply before the December 15 deadline.

Son of Mrs. C. D. Sawyer of 403 North Broad Street, John attended Edenton High School where he was president of the student council, a member of the Beta Club, co-captain of the basketball team and a member of the baseball team.

He also wrote for the school newspaper and was the winner of the 1953 World Peace Speaking Contest among North Carolina high school students.

An enthusiastic reader of scientific literature, he is taking courses in chemistry, zoology, and mathematics, as well as in French and English.

In his spare time, he participates in the Canterbury Club of the Episcopal Church and in Shoe 'n' Slipper, student organization. He also plans to join the zoological society.

"I'm pleased with the contact with students from various sections of the country, it adds something to college," he says.

Looking back on his last-minute entry into the scholarship competition, John points out, "You're foolish not to try for a scholarship—even a tuition scholarship would have been a great help." Most of the competitors who got as far as the regionals were awarded tuition scholarships.

Seaman Charles Haste On Cruiser Roanoke

Aboard the light cruiser USS Roanoke undergoing overhaul at the Norfolk Naval Shipyard at Portsmouth, is Charles L. Haste, seaman, USN, of 300 W. Queen Street, Edenton.
