

Letters To Santa Claus

Dear Santa—I am seven years old or I will be December 14. I get birthday presents, so I won't ask for much for Christmas. Will you please bring me a bicycle and maybe some doll clothes. I need some new bedroom slippers with fur around them. My little brother is only two and cannot write, so I'll say for him that he wants a tractor. Thank you. Love, Emily Holmes.

Dear Santa Claus—I want a walkie talkie doll. And a pair of moccasins. Love, Sarah Frances.

Dear Santa—Please bring me a train, zylphone, donkey pulling hay in wagon, Mickey Mouse chalk board, ferris wheel and a wee little Christmas tree—A tool kit, too. Love, Craig.

Dear Santa Claus—Please bring me a typewriter, cash register, telephone and doggie that walks and a doll for Tana. Love, Scot. P. S. A play rifle, too, and a tool kit, and a big box of crayons.

Dear Santa—Please bring me a typewriter, walkie talkie, and a dog, tool kit, chaps, train, big box of crayons (14 in a box), space gadget suit and a doll for Tana. Please bring her one, and a fly-back naddle and ball, cowboy boots. Love, Jimmy.

Dear Santa Claus—Please bring me a cowboy suit and a pair of clothes, and I have a brother and a sister and I want a tent and a fire truck and a train and a plane and a drum and a rifle and a watch and a book sack and a gun and a jack in the box and a snow hat and a baseball and a bat and a glove and a hat and a pair of gloves and a rmy suit and a canteen and a cowboy belt and a pair of shoes and a pair of socks and a set of cars and a note book. Love, Terry.

ENJOYABLE CHRISTMAS PARTY

Members of Chowanoke Council, Degree of Pocahontas, and their husbands enjoyed a Christmas party in the Red Men hall Friday night. Various games were played under the direction of Mrs. Elsie Lee, Mrs. Beulah Cale and Mrs. Bommie White, after which refreshments were served and gifts exchanged.

Christmas carols were also sung as part of the very enjoyable program.

A NEW OCCUPATION FOR WOMEN

Pretty Jean Sykes of Conway, N. C., is shown operating the keyboard of a teletypesetter perforator, the machine that has opened up an entirely new occupation for women in the newspaper field. The tape from this machine (shown in the lower left hand of the picture) is fed through an apparatus attached to a typesetting machine and automatically sets type for newspapers. Miss Sykes is a student at the Roy Parker School of Printing, Chowan College, Murfreesboro, the only school in the entire South where such training is available. (Chowan College News Bureau photo)

Library Vital Part Of School Program

(Continued from Page One) per, and those badly worn, have been discarded. The library receives thirty-six magazines which include material on current events, science, literature, sports, hobbies, homemaking and vocations. This year the following students are serving as library assistants: Ann Braswell, Betty Byrum, Sherwood Harrell, Ralph Chappell, Imogene Morgan, Rachel Wilder, Frankie Stokes, Faye Haste, Frances Boyce, Faye Lassiter, and Bonnie Wright. These students are given an opportunity to participate in as many varied library duties as possible. They circulate library materials, shelve books, send overdue notices, process new books, plan and prepare bulletin boards and displays, keep magazines, newspapers, and the reading room in order. Jane Yount, a member of the Senior Class, does all of the typing for the library.

The general appearance of the library has been greatly improved by the addition of bulletin boards and several pictures. Mrs. Enola N. Smith, local artist, has given the library three lovely original water colors of local scenes: The Court House, The Cupola House, and St. Paul's Episcopal Church. The pictures are hung as a group on the north wall of the library. Three excellent pen and ink drawings by Cecil Miller, a member of the Junior Class, have been presented to the high school library. These drawings are of the old Edenton Academy, the present Elementary School and the new Edenton Junior-Senior High School.

Oscar White and Melvin Davis, members of the Freshman Class, have given potted plants to the library and some members of Junior High English classes have made shadow boxes depicting scenes from books they have read. These are displayed in the library and add much to the attractiveness of the room.

Local Leaders Needed For Better 4-H Work

"Local adult 4-H Club leaders are an integral part of good 4-H Club work," says County Agent C. W. Overman.

"The leaders are out there in the communities ready to work with our boys and girls. Our job is to influence, train and give them the inspiration opening the avenue of service.

"Health is the first thing for our 4-H Club members. What is project work and other activities without health? Every 4-H Club member must be inspired to strive for health improvement along with project work and other activities. Good health improvement in a community results in better personal health, family health and community health.
