

Special Feature At 4-H Council Meeting

James Monds Presents Colored Slides of Chicago Trip

The Chowan 4-H County Council held its regular meeting on Wednesday night of last week at the Chowan Community Building. A total of 39 members were present for the meeting. After the business session, James Monds, State 4-H Tractor Maintenance Winner for 1953, showed some colored slides of his trip to the National 4-H Club Congress at Chicago. James' comments were very interesting and were enjoyed by the group present. The Chowan Ramblers, a very talented musical organization, presented several numbers.

Regular 4-H Club meetings were held at the schools last week. Shirley Harrell, member of the Chowan Senior 4-H Club, and Billy Goodwin, member of the Chowan 8th and 9th Grade 4-H Club, each conducted a demonstration on the use of electricity. Shirley's demonstration was on "The Importance of Using Adequate Wiring in the Home and on the Farm." Billy's demonstration was on "How To Build An Electric Heated Hot Bed." Each of these demonstrations was very interesting and the club members who gave them are to be congratulated.

All Domestic Servants Required To Furnish Health Certificates

The district health department offices are frequently asked about health safeguards required of domestic servants.

State law requires that before hiring a servant, such applicant for employment must furnish the employer with a certificate dated within two weeks prior to date of application from a practicing physician or the health officer, that the applicant is free from all contagious disease in the communicable form. Applicants must also present the original report from an approved laboratory that applicant has a negative Wasserman test.

Frequently people employ servants for weeks or months, only to learn that the maid or servant is found to be suffering from a communicable disease. This naturally gives the home maker many worries, and sometimes they are justified. "Please do not hire a domestic servant until he or she gives you a health certificate," urges Dr. B. B. McGuire, district health officer.

HD County Council Meets This Afternoon

The Home Demonstration County Council will meet this (Thursday) afternoon, at 2:30 o'clock at the Chowan Community Building at Cross Roads. An interesting program is being planned with the 4-H delegates who attended the National 4-H Club Congress showing slides and discussing their exciting trip.

Since this is the beginning of a new year there will be a number of important business items to discuss. All County Council members are urged to make a special effort to attend.

Hotel Selected As Site For USO Club

Town Required to Guarantee $75 Per Month For Rent

At a meeting Thursday night representatives of various organizations interested in securing a USO Club for Edenton, selected the ball room of Hotel Joseph Hewes for a club. The hotel was the choice after five other sites were considered.

It was reported that the rent for the room will be $75 per month, which includes heat, light and janitorial services.

Because the town is required to furnish a place for the USO, plans will soon be put in motion to solicit contributions to pay for the rent. All other expenses of operation will be borne by the USO.

At Thursday night's meeting Mrs. Adelaide Chesson was elected secretary to succeed Mrs. John Reeder, who found it necessary to resign.

VFW Post Celebrating National VFW Week

(Continued From Page One) display the American flags. Open house will be observed Saturday at the Post's home when the public is cordially invited to attend.

As the local Post prepared for the observance of National VFW Week Commander Bill Perry says that the organization had a long record of being a militant outfit which is not afraid to take a stand on major issues at all levels where it is concerned.

"Many organizations," Commander Perry asserted, "are apparently tied to or under so much obligation to certain individuals, corporations, associations, and powerful groups, that they cannot or will not take a stand on major problems where their influence could be used to an advantage."

"This is not true of the Veterans of Foreign Wars," he pointed out, "since we have not become a 'tool' of any group who would try to control our mandates or influence on issues where it is pertinent that we take a stand for or against some law or problems. For that reason, we can fight the causes for the disabled and needy veterans, the active duty service personnel, for a strong military force, and other matters which we were organized to support."

In connection with the VFW Week, the Commander said his Post was now striving to attain a substantial increase in membership, to increase their participation in community affairs, and to become an integral part of this community.

FIRE AT LUNCH ROOM
