M., in the Mt. Olivet Methodist Church at Manteo, N. C. The pastor, the Rev. H. R. Ardmore, was the officiating minister.

Wedding music was rendered by Mrs. Victor D. Meekins of Manteo, organist and Mr. John Long, soloist.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother Lt. Alvah H. Ward, U. S. Army, now stationed at Fort Benning, Georgia. She wore a wedding gown of white chantilly lace and tulle over satin, styled with a shoulder wide sheer yoke attached to a lace Peter Pan collar. The tight bodice was finished with abbreviated sleeves. The Elizabethan skirt with petals of lace over the hipline formed a sweeping train. Her finger tip length veil was arranged from a half hat of lace outlined with seed pearls. She carried a heart-shaped bouquet of white roses centered with a white orchid.

Miss Laura Craddock of Manteo was maid of honor. She wore a floor length gown of primrose yellow nylon tulle over taffeta, styled with strapless cuffed bodice, topped by a cape outlined with lace. The bouffant skirt was accented with lace. She wore a matching bonnet of taffeta and net, and carried a heart shape bouquet of Talianman roses.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. Allen Lee Mann, Jr., and Misses Doreen Midgett, Helen Farrow and Janie Lee Etheridge of Manteo. They wore floor length gowns of aqua, styled identically to the honor attendant in matching bonnets. They carried bouquets of yellow roses.

Edward Byrum of Colerain was his brother's best man. Ushers were Allen L. Mann, Jr., and Jewell Burns of Manteo, and Willis Nixon and Ralph Ward of Norfolk, Va.

Mrs. Ward, mother of the bride, wore a gown of hyacinth blue taffeta and lace embroidered with pearls. She wore a corsage of pink roses. The mother of the groom wore a navy blue lace and chiffon gown with a corsage of red roses.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride. For traveling the bride wore a gray wool suit with white hat and the orchid from her bouquet. After the wedding trip they will be at home, 2106 Lafayette Blvd., Norfolk, Virginia.
