

Board Of Equalization Will Meet March 15th

Commissioners To Meet At Court House at 10 O'clock

Chowan County Commissioners will meet as a Board of Equalization and Review Monday, March 15, at 10 o'clock in the Court House.

The purpose of this meeting is to hear complaints relative to equalization of property, so that any doubt as to unfair equalization should be presented at that meeting, which is the only time the Commissioners can change the valuation of property.

Plans Progressing For Swimming Pool

The drive for raising funds is being held up temporarily pending a ruling by the Revenue Department in Washington as to whether people who donate toward erection of the pool can claim deduction on their contributions. The tax exemption application for the corporation is now in process and as soon as it is ruled on, the fund raising drive will get under way. J. H. Conger, Sr., was appointed chairman for the drive.

It was announced that the certificate of incorporation for Hicks Memorial Swimming Pool, Inc., has been approved by the Secretary of State, and that it is now in the hands of the organization.

Board members attending the meeting Monday night were Al Phillips, E. J. Hobbs, Jesse Harrell, Muriel Byrum, Luther Parks, George Twiddy, Mrs. Jerry Frve, Mrs. Lena Leary and Mayor L. H. Hasket.

Major J. N. Hollenbeck Entertains Rotarians

Major J. N. Hollenbeck, stationed at the Edenton Marine Corps Auxiliary Landing Field, was the principal speaker at last week's Rotary meeting, when he entertained the Rotarians with colored slides taken when he was stationed in Korea and Japan.

The pictures included interesting scenes of life on the islands, terrain, parks and various shrines, all of which he explained as the pictures were shown. He was introduced by Jack Mooney, who had charge of the program.

During the meeting President John Kramer appointed Marvin Wilson, Gerald James and Gilliam Wood to investigate the possibilities of joining in staging a sports award banquet.

BIRTHDAY DINNER

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Byrum had a joint birthday dinner at their home on East King Street Sunday in honor of Mrs. Byrum's birthday on March 1; her daughter, Mrs. Gladys King, of Hobbsville, whose birthday was March 2 and her son, Herbert, Jr., whose birthday is on March 4th.

All of Mrs. Byrum's brothers attended the dinner, including Mr. and Mrs. Joe Perry, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Perry, all of Hertford, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Perry of Tyner, and besides, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lane and family, Mr. and Mrs. Spurgeon King and family and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Bass and family. The group thoroughly enjoyed the occasion.
