

Frances Bennett Is Bride Of A. M. Bissell

Wedding Solemnized In Lumberton Sunday,
February 28

Miss Martha Frances Bennett, daughter of Mrs. John Arcaro of Edenton and A. T. Bennett of Lexington became the bride of Arthur Martin Bissell, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Bissell of Lumberton in a ceremony Sunday afternoon, February 28, at 5 o'clock in the Godwin Heights Baptist Church, with the pastor, the Rev. H. W. Baucum, officiating.

Wedding music was presented by Mrs. Howard Bodkin of Greenville, pianist, and Sgt. Rusty Calaci of Edenton, soloist.

Given in marriage by her stepfather, John P. Arcaro, the bride wore a gown of white lace and tulle over taffeta. Her fingertip veil of illusion was attached to a halo of orange blossoms, and she carried a cascade of white snandragons and carnations, centered with a white orchid.

Miss Juanita Bennett of Edenton attended her cousin as maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Carolyn Lewis of Hertford, cousin of the bride, and Mrs. Billy Stanley of Raeford.

The gowns of the attendants were fashioned of lace and tulle over taffeta in pastel shades. Their headdresses were of matching tulle and they carried matching nosegays of carnations.

Ellis Britt of Lumberton attended the bridegroom as best man, and ushers were Grady Bissell of Lumberton, brother of the bridegroom, Billy Stanley of Raeford, Bobby Stone and Harry Walters, both of Lumberton.

Miss Beryl Bissell of Fairmont, niece of the bridegroom, was flower girl. She wore a white net over taffeta dress and carried a basket of white rose petals. Dickie Britt of Lumberton was ring bearer.

The mother of the bride wore a dress of navy crepe with white accessories. The mother of the bridegroom wore a navy crepe dress with white accessories and a corsage of red roses.

Mrs. Bissell is a graduate of Edenton High School and has recently made her home with her aunt, Mrs. B. M. Floyd, in Lumberton. While living in Edenton Mrs. Bissell was chosen as "Miss Edenton" and was a member of "The Three Bows", a trio called upon very frequently to sing at various affairs.

The bridegroom received his education at Jones Commercial College in High Point. He served two years with the U. S. Navy, and is now partner and manager of Bissell's Transfer in Lumberton.

Immediately following the ceremony the parents of the bridegroom entertained at a wedding reception at their home.

For a wedding trip to Florida the bride wore a pink and gray checked wool suit, with gray accessories and an orchid. Upon their return the couple will be at home in Lumberton.

Wilmington Azalea Festival March 25-28

Historic Wilmington, showplace for "more than a million azaleas," invites visitors to coastal North Carolina March 25-28 for the Seventh Annual Wilmington Azalea Festival.

During Festival week, the famous azaleas in the city and on the beautiful plantations nearby will be at the height of their bloom. Sharing the spotlight with this spectacular display of flowers will be a host of guest celebrities and a four-day program of colorful events ranging from an outdoor art exhibit on quaint Cottage Lane to a "wild west" rodeo at Legion Stadium. Stars of the entertainment world will take part on social events, the Festival parade, and network broadcasts, while on the flower-bordered links of the Cape Fear Country Club golf stars will compete for the $10,000 Azalea Open PGA Tournament

March 25-28.

General Mark W. Clark, former supreme commander of the UN forces in Korea, will be this year's guest of honor, and at the Azalea Ball on the evening of March 27 will crown the Azalea Queen chosen to succeed Hollywood's Alexis Smith, Queen Azalea of 1953.

ATTENDS CONFERENCE
Mrs. Duke Cropsey, executive secretary of Pasquotank-Perquimans-Camden-Chowan Tuberculosis Association, was among the 40 executive secretaries who attended the N. C. Conference of Tuberculosis workers in Greensboro Wednesday through Friday.

Miss Marguerite Spilman, executive secretary of the Atlanta Association, pointed out that the seal sale, not only helped finance the work of the association but constituted a worldwide program of education about tuberculosis—bringing tuberculosis from the first cause of death to seventh place as a killer.
