

Norfolk's Azalea Court April 7 To 11

Miss Patricia Ann Priest Chosen to Reign as Queen

Miss Patricia Ann Priest, 17-year-old daughter of Mrs. Ivy Baker Priest, Treasurer of the United States, will reign as the Queen of Norfolk's International Azalea Court, April 7-11, which includes "princesses" from thirteen other NATO nations.

The Azalea Court will be international in more than one way. Not only will 14 nations be represented, but the ceremony will be tied in with the second anniversary of the Supreme Allied Command, Atlantic, which has its headquarters in Norfolk. SACLant, of course, is the Atlantic arm of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization and the Norfolk headquarters has equal rank with SACEurope, formerly commander by General Eisenhower in Paris.

The Court will open with ceremonies at the New York Yankees—Norfolk Tars Exhibition baseball game on Wednesday, April 7, and continue through Palm Sunday Services on April 11.

Herman E. Parrish Returns From Tour

Destroyer Division 11 returned to San Diego, Calif., March 21st from a tour of duty in the Far East.

Among those who returned is Herman E. Parrish, boilerman third class, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Parrish of Route 1, and husband of Mrs. Myrtis Parrish of Route 1, all of Edenton, aboard the destroyer USS Floyd B. Parks.

The division is composed of the destroyers USS Orleck, Floyd B. Parks and John R. Craig, and the radar picket destroyer USS Perkins.

While in the Far East, the division served as part of the protective screen for fast carrier Task Force 77, operated with the UN's Blockading and Escort Force, served on Formosa patrol, carried out anti-submarine exercises, and conducted training exercises.

The division visited ports in Japan, Formosa and Korea. They also stopped at Hong Kong and Pearl Harbor, T. H.

How to pull a gay main dish out of the air on no notice at all? Keep an emergency shelf constantly stocked with the ingredients for one main dish that is generous and satisfying. Other fixings can go simple.

Tuna, peas, ripe olives and a hint of mushrooms in an unusual taste combination . . .

Delicious Tuna Shortcake
2 c. sifted flour
3 tsp. baking powder
1/2 tsp. salt
1/2 c. shortening
3/4 to 1 c. milk

Melted butter or margarine
Sift together flour, baking powder, and salt. Cut in shortening. Add milk to make dough soft. Pat out 1/2 of dough in round 8-inch pan; brush with melted butter or margarine. Pat out remaining dough and place on top; bake in hot oven, 450 degrees, 15 to 20 minutes. Pile piping hot filling between layers and on top of shortcake. Serves 4.

Filling

2 cans condensed mushroom soup
1 can (7-oz.) flaked tuna
1/2 c. cooked or canned peas
1/2 c. sliced ripe olives
Mix soup, tuna, peas and olives; Heat slowly. Use when thoroughly hot.
