

Aces Drop Opener To Perquimans Indians

Wildness of Pitchers and Errors Figure In 10-4 Defeat

Edenton's Aces lost their first game of the 1954 baseball season on Hicks Fields Friday afternoon when they were defeated by the Hertford Indians by a score of 10 to 4.

The visitors took advantage of three errors, wild pitching to tally five runs in the first three innings and came back in the sixth inning to score four more runs. The Aces staged a rally in the fifth to score four runs on five bunched hits, but were unable to overcome the Indians' lead.

Four pitchers were used by the Aces, Griffin, Stillely, Rogerson and Emminizer, who gave up 10 hits. The Aces collected eight hits off Phillips and Matthews, who were given splendid support in the field. The Aces were charged with seven errors.

Al Chappell and D. A. Carver led at bat for the visitors, while Stanton Harrell led for the Aces with two hits.

Primary Department In Annual Operetta

The Primary Department of the Edenton Elementary School presented the annual operetta, "The Magic Feather of Mother Goose" in the auditorium Friday night.

The story had to do with a little boy who had a birthday party and in-visited his neighborhood friends. Mother Goose appeared on the stage and changed the tots into Mother Goose characters. The result was a number of interesting dances and lively nursery songs.

Leading characters were: George Skinner as Artie; Princess Valentino as Mother Goose, others, Vivian Vreton, Wanda West, Pauline Satterfield, Ernestine Williams, Barbara Blount, Barbara Valentine, Kenneth Newsome, Ruby Simons, Marshall Jordan, Vann Flynn, Delores Harrell, Jean Hall and a chorus.
