Hung Jury Features Superior Court Closing

to the verdict of the 11 jurors if no change in the jury's vote resulted.

The attorneys agreed and Judge Carr released the verdict which was that both parties were at fault. The judge, therefore, ordered that the plaintiff pay the court costs.

Before court was adjourned Judge Carr also sentenced James Richardson, who earlier in the session entered a plea of guilty of accessory to the fact in the trial of Mrs. Lillie Ward, who performed an abortion on his wife who died shortly thereafter. The judgment was not less than four years nor more than five years in State prison. The sentence was suspended upon condition that the defendant be placed on probation for four years and pay the court costs.

Near the end of the term several divorces were granted as follows:

Elsie Lee Taylor from Daniel Webster Taylor.

Callie J. Hyman from Augustus Hyman.

Alice Cayton Butler from Richard Orville Butler.

Mary Kennedy Elliott from Joseph Henry Elliott.

Rosa Lee Payton from Joseph Payton.

Harriett R. Riddick from Charlie Riddick.

Clarence Jernigan from Mary Bembry Jernigan.
