

Methodists Plan Homecoming Day Sunday, May 23rd

The Rev. W. L. Freeman,
Former Pastor, Will
Preach at 11 A. M.

Homecoming Day will be observed at the Edenton Methodist Church on Sunday, May 23, when all members and friends are cordially invited to attend.

The principal speaker for the occasion will be the Rev. William L. Freeman, a former pastor of the church, who will preach at the 11 o'clock service.

The pastor of the church extends a special invitation to all who helped on the new church school building to be present, as well as those who are not members of the church but made contributions for the purpose.

School Preparing For Commencement

Class Officers are: Clifford Overman, president; Bobby Whiteman, vice president; Barbara Dail, secretary, and Hazel Elliott, treasurer.

Mascots are: Master Emmet Wood and little Miss Sharon Dunbar.

The chairman of the program committee is Edna Boswell Romine and pianist for all Commencement exercises is Mary Leggett Browning.

The baccalaureate sermon by the Rev. Earl B. Edwards, pastor of the Edenton Methodist Church, on Sunday night, May 30, will be the main feature of the second of the commencement exercises.

The invocation will be given by the Rev. James McKenzie, pastor of the Edenton Presbyterian Church.

Musical selections by the Treble Clef Club under the direction of Mrs. Mary Leggett Browning and by the mixed chorus under the direction of Miss Juanita Stokes will be presented. The Scripture will be read by the Rev. E. C. Alexander, pastor of the First Christian Church and the benediction pronounced by the Rev. Gordon Bennett, rector of St. Paul's Episcopal Church.

At the graduation exercises on Monday night, May 31, at 8 o'clock, the senior class of 1954 will march in a dignified procession to the music of "Pomp and Circumstance" by Elgar, with Mary Leggett Browning at the piano.

The invocation will be given by the Rev. R. N. Carroll, pastor of the Edenton Baptist Church.

The mixed chorus, under the direction of Miss Juanita Stokes, will present two numbers.

Clifford Overman, president of the senior class, will be master of ceremonies. The general theme "Think on These Things," will be presented in three addresses: "Truth and Justice" by Ben Browning, "Purity and Loveliness" by Talbert Jackson, and "Honor and Reputation" by Bobby Whiteman.

Awarding of honors and awards will be a highlight of the evening.

The presentation of the class by Gerald D. James, principal, will be followed by awarding of diplomas by John A. Holmes, Superintendent of City Schools.

Marshals for this occasion will be: Mike Malone, Chief Marshal; Mary Leggett Browning, Carolyn Ashley, Frankie Privott, Jimmy Harrison, Evelyn Bunch, Alice Parrish and Bobby Smith.
