

Miss Mary Anne Rose Weds Graham White

Ceremony Solemnized in Henderson at Noon Saturday

Miss Mary Anne Rose, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Anderson Rose, Jr., of Henderson and Robert Graham White, Jr., son of Mrs. Robert Graham White and the late Mr. White of Edenton were united in marriage at high noon Saturday in the Church of the Holy Innocents in Henderson.

The rector of the church, the Rev. Bruce Le Febre and the Rev. Gordon D. Bennett, rector of St. Paul's Episcopal Church of Edenton, officiated.

A prelude of nuptial music was presented prior to the ceremony by Samuel Sours, organist.

The bride, escorted by her father, wore a gown of satin and Chantilly lace with rose design. It was fashioned with a portrait neckline and full skirt ending in a wide circular train which fell in a cascade from the waistline. Her veil of French illusion was attached to a bandeau of matching lace. She carried a bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley.

Miss Margaret Leah Rose, sister of the bride, attended as maid of honor and was the only attendant. Her ballerina-length gown was of silk crystal-ette in Wedgewood blue, a back bow accentuating the princess silhouette. Her headdress was a bandeau of tulle leaves, with a forehead veil of matching color. She carried a cascade bouquet of yellow roses.

Serving as best man for the bridegroom was his brother-in-law Samuel F. Teague of Morganton.

Ushers were Joseph Clarence Leary,

Jr., Elton Forehand, Jr., George Alma Byrum and John Gilliam Wood, Jr., all of Edenton.

John Boddie Crudup, Jr., served as crucifer, and Jere Zollicoffer and Marshall Cooper, Jr., were Acolytes.

The bride's mother wore a two-piece Italian silk dress of rose beige with white embroidery trim. Her corsage was a single orchid.

The bride was graduated from Saint Mary's High School and Junior College. She received her degree from the University of North Carolina, and was a member of Chi Omega Sorority.

In 1949 she was presented to society at the Terpsichorean Ball in Raleigh.

The bridegroom attended Virginia Episcopal School and was graduated from the University of North Carolina, where he was a member of the Sigma Nu Fraternity.

Immediately following the ceremony the parents of the bride entertained at a wedding breakfast at the Henderson Country Club.

1/2 cup heavy cream
1/2 sq. (1/2-oz.) unsweetened chocolate

Add gelatin to water; set aside. Scald milk in saucepan on low heat; stir slowly into combined egg yolks, 1/4 cup sugar, and salt. Cook on low heat, stirring until custard coats spoon. Remove, add vanilla, gelatin; stir until melted. Chill, stirring occasionally, until it mounds when dropped from spoon. Beat with beater until just smooth. Beat egg whites till they peak when beater is raised; slowly add 1/4 cup sugar, beating stiff. Fold into custard. Turn into shell. Sprinkle with nutmeg; chill till set. Top with whipped cream. Shave chocolate over top.

Candy Velvet Pie

Omit nutmeg, chocolate, and cream if desired. Sprinkle filling with crushed peppermint candy.

Chocolate Flake Pie

Fold 1/3 cup shaved unsweetened chocolate into filling. Omit chocolate topping.

Cocoanut Bavarian

Use 1 1/4 teaspoons each vanilla and almond for flavoring. Sprinkle 1 cup grated fresh or moist shredded cocoanut on whipped cream top. Or omit almond; flavor cream with 2 tablespoons creme de menthe.

Coffee Velvet

Make filling, adding 2 tablespoons instant or soluble coffee to whites before beating; omit cream. Melt 1/4 cup semisweet chocolate pieces, stir in 1/4 cup water; drizzle on top of pie. To vary, fold in 1/2 cup sliced, pitted dates and 1/4 cup chopped pecans with whites. Substitute cocoa for chocolate. This pie filling is best when a plain baked 9-inch pie shell is used.

Eggnog Pie

Omit vanilla, nutmeg, and chocolate. Add rum to flavor. Sprinkle whipped cream with 1 teaspoon nutmeg.

Nesselrode Pie

Substitute 2 tablespoons rum or rum flavoring for vanilla. Fold in 1/4 cup mixed glace fruits with egg whites.

Strawberry Velvet

Gold in 1 cup sliced strawberries into filling. Garnish cream with berries; omit chocolate.
