

SENATOR LENNON REPORTS

Washington—We are preparing to have a memorial service in the Senate for the late and great Senator Clyde R. Hoey.

Tributes

It will be impossible to get all of the editorial comment from North Carolina's newspapers assembled as a tribute to Senator Hoey, but I am undertaking the task of getting all comment possible in order to show the people of the country that North Carolina held our late Senator in the highest esteem.

Saddened Senators

United States Senators from many other states joined with us North Carolinians in attending the funeral in Shelby. Republicans and Democrats alike mourned his passing. Senators attending were Russell, Chavez, Johnson of Colorado, Johnson of South Carolina, Millikin, Cordon, Young, Knowland, Holland, Stennis, Clements, Gore, Purtell and Maybank. On the special train, as we left Shelby, there was universal comment at the way all of the people of North Carolina revered Senator Hoey.

Responsibilities

It is difficult to express how one feels to suddenly be placed in the responsibility of the office of senior Senator. The great and pressing problems facing our country have made it necessary for me to decline many speaking invitations now and later on this summer in order to be in Washington for these duties. I have done this in good faith, in my desire to be of service to all the people of North Carolina. Your suggestions are invited in order for me to know what your thinking is on current national matters.

Congress

The Congress has been attending to some of the less glamorous legislation in recent days. We expect the fireworks to begin in June and July as the major bills move onto the floor for debate. Senate committees are now wrestling with such major legislation as taxation, appropriations, defense, pay increases for postal employees, farm legislation, and a host of other things that escape the public attention.

Research

We were able to pass the commercial research bill which I co-sponsored. This measure will make funds available to expand research for the domestic fishing industry and will provide new uses for fisheries products. These funds will come from duties from fishery products shipped here from abroad.

New Committee

By seniority, I have been moved up to a seat on the Senate Interior and Insular Affairs Committee. I leave the Government Operations Committee for this important committee assignment.

This-and-That

Shortly after the session of the Senate opened the day following Senator Hoey's death, Senator Symington of Missouri placed a red carnation on the late Senator's desk as a tribute of the love of the Senate for him. Senator George is back on the job after taking off several days for a needed rest. He has served in the

Journey Into Wonderland

Did you ever see snow fall upward? If you get to the Grand Canyon quickly, that is what you may find. Rising drafts from the warm desert on the Canyon's floor blow the snow upward. Trail parties, coming from the Canyon, often find snow on the bottoms of their hat rims.

At your first view of the Grand Canyon, the bottom seems to have dropped out of the earth, leaving a gigantic abyss surrounded by mountain ranges and rock temples of ever-changing colors. More than 1,000 square miles of exquisite beauty await the winter or spring visitor to the South Rim. Off-season trips are increasingly popular—travel is lighter, accommodations available, and the scenery more dazzling than in mid-summer.

A trip down into the Canyon on muleback is an exciting adventure. From various colored strata that form the steep Canyon walls, the history of the earth may be read. The whole experience is a photographer's dream—a sightseer's ecstasy.

Good roads and direct railway connections take you there quickly. Hotel accommodations are as low as $3.00 single and $4.00 double, with children at half rate; auto cabins cost even less. Advance reservations will assure your comfort. Write or wire Walter D. Rouzer, Fred Harvey, Grand Canyon, Arizona.

Senate longer than any present member. . . . To date, May has been much cooler than April in Washington. . . . It hasn't been long since Senators answered their mail in longhand—they rarely got more than five letters daily. Now, some of the Senators receive over a thousand letters daily. . . . Senator Kerr of Oklahoma is one of the most witty members of the Senate Democrats and Senator Millikin rates high among the Republicans. When they get together in debate, it is a scene that pleases the galleries.

HEALTH FOR ALL

Kwashiorkor

Another new disease to worry about? No. This is one that you will probably never meet. And there is a good reason for it. It's the bottle of milk on your doorstep that keeps not so lucky. The problem of "red boy"—which is the meaning of that difficult word—is so widespread that both the World Health Organization and the Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations are now trying to solve it. The name describes the appearance of a child with this pitiful disease. His hair becomes reddish brown. The skin develops an odd cracked pavement look. And with these symptoms come diarrhea, underweight, swelling of the skin with fluid, weak muscles, and anemia. The child becomes sad and apathetic. He does not smile or play.

Signs of the disease appear in infants a few months old, when weaning begins. It seems to be caused by a lack of milk protein in the diet, and too much carbohydrate in relation to protein. When the youngster is fed dried skim milk or mixtures of various plant proteins with bananas, he usually recovers.

Although kwashiorkor is unlikely

ARTHRITIS?

I have been wonderfully blessed in being restored to active life after being crippled in nearly every joint in my body and with muscular soreness from head to foot. I had Rheumatoid Arthritis and other forms of Rheumatism, hands deformed and my ankles were set. Limited space prohibits telling you more here but if you will write me I will reply at once and tell you how I received this wonderful relief.

And that look-of-tomorrow styling that's part and parcel of every new Buick — that sweeping panoramic windshield with the dream-car slant — all that says there's action here, and plenty of it.

But just note the name "CENTURY" emblazoned on its rear fender, and you can take it as gospel that this is a performance car of the very first water.

It's the livest of the live wires — the highest-voltage Buick in the line.
