A LIFT FOR TODAY

O taste and see that the Lord is good: blessed is the man that trusteth in him. Psalms 34:8.

Jesus, who has revealed to us the very character of God, has said, "He that followeth me shall not walk in darkness."

Almighty One, open our eyes that we may see the glory and greatness of Thy redeeming love given to us through Thy Beloved Son.

Don't Pass It Up!

Attention is called to the mass chest X-ray survey which will be conducted in Edenton from June 2 through July 8. The purpose of this survey is to give a free chest X-ray for every person in the county 15 years old and over, and includes all persons in the Pasquotank-Perquimans-Camden-Chowan District Health Department.

It is calculated that 8,260 persons in Chowan County should be X-rayed to detect the presence of tuberculosis. The work will be done by qualified physicians and each person X-rayed will receive notification of the finding.

It is a known fact that in many cases a person has tuberculosis but is not aware of it. By being X-rayed and finding the disease present in the early stages, a shorter period of treatment will be required and obviously the person affected will save expense in being treated.

There is so little trouble to be X-rayed that every eligible person in the county should have it done. It is not necessary to undress and only a few minutes is required.

With four units in operation in the district, one will be stationed near the Edenton Police Station and will be open every day from 10 A. M. to 4 P. M. except Sundays and Mondays from June 2 through July 8.

The unit will also be at Chowan High School June 22, 23, 24, 25 and 26 from 10 A. M. to 4 P. M., so that it will be more convenient for up-county citizens.

This survey is made possible by the District Health Department, the Board of Commissioners of all four counties in the district, the District Tuberculosis Association and the N. C. State Board of Health.

The survey is a splendid opportunity to check on tuberculosis and every person in the county should take advantage of it.

Those who think they can get something for nothing are entitled to one more thought.

The poor may inherit the earth in the hereafter, but their life at present is pretty inconvenient in the meantime.

HEARD & SEEN

By "BUFF"

Well, election is only a few days off and on Saturday the voters will decide who they want in office. There's been a lot of greeting and handshaking during the last few weeks and undoubtedly every candidate has a feeling of optimism as a result of conversations with the voters. However, the deciding factor will be the marks on the ballots as they are counted Saturday night. No candidate can figure he will get all the votes from those who say "I'm fer you," 'cause some of 'em are bound to be agin you. Anyway, candidates and voters alike will be glad when the election is over.

And those candidates who win in the election will not be much happier than a whole gang of youngsters who this week wind up the business of going to school for a few months. Some of 'em are as eager to learn if they were promoted as candidates are to learn if they are elected.

A pleasant visitor in The Herald office Tuesday was E. T. Rawlinson. E. T. has been more or less on the sick list lately and was obliged to spend a couple days in the hospital. He says it's a big pain to lie in bed and look at four walls. And I say "amen" to that. Here's hoping he'll continue on the mend.

According to a letter received from Bob Marsh, I have a new title. Following my name on the envelope was written: "Prints Stuff and What Stuff."

From appearances, that gang at the post office believes in being patriotic. Last week Bill Goodwin turned up wearing a pair of blue shoes and a little later Ed Parker put in an appearance wearing a pair of red shoes. Now, in order to complete the national colors, either Bill Sexton or Robert Upton will have to dig up enough dough to buy a pair of white shoes. We just must have red, white and blue.

Edenton Methodists had a very enjoyable time Sunday when they observed homecoming day in connection with the recent completion of a new church school building. The Rev. W. L. Freeman, a former pastor but now located in Scotland Neck, preached at the 11 o'clock service, after which the entire congregation was invited to a free dinner in the new building. Plenty of food was on hand, so that all who attended had an opportunity to be filled to the brim. Sunday night's service was called off, maybe because some of 'em couldn't make it back to the church.

Edenton's Colonials are scheduled to play an exhibition game with Elizabeth City on Hicks Field Friday night at 8 o'clock. Here's one who shivered at one game played last week—and it wasn't due to closeness of the score. What we need now to watch baseball games is a little warmer weather—but it'll be coming.

But cool weather or not, the baseball bug is crawling. The Edenton Colonials and Rocky Hock teams are being whipped into shape for the Albemarle League race. A team has been organized at Oak Grove and the Edenton Sluggers, colored team, is also in the business. So it appears that we will have plenty baseball this summer after all.

Restoration Set For Church At Jamestown

One of the nation's oldest churches, St. Luke's Episcopal Church, Smithfield, Va., will be restored to its original colonial form. A nationwide campaign to raise $300,000 for the work is now underway.

Built shortly after the first English settlement in America, Jamestown 1607, St. Luke's has been described as the "only surviving building in the Jamestown area that bears witness to the spiritual strength that sustained the first generation or two of settlers." Reconstruction will be supervised by officials from Colonial Williamsburg, Inc., and the Philadelphia Museum of Fine Arts.

Second Drive Planned For Blood Program

Approximately $1,900 was raised in the fund raising campaign, 60 per cent of the goal, leaving the chapter $1,100 short.

This is not the fault of any one person. The campaign was very ably conducted by N. J. George as chairman and quite a number of very capable volunteer workers, who spent a great amount of time and energy in making their house-to-house canvass. However, it is felt that the public in general was not properly and fully informed as to the relationship between Red Cross and the blood program.

Practically everyone contacted gave something, but the amounts were small in comparison to former years.

"We have fallen short of our goal for the past two years and have been operating on a small surplus left in the chapter treasury from a few years past," stated Dr. A. F. Downum, chairman of the Chowan County Red Cross Chapter.

"Recognition and thanks must be given to the personnel at the Marine Air Station also," said Dr. Downum. "not only for the $314 contributed, but for the large number of blood donors who can always be depended upon to come forward and do much more than their share in giving blood. We are most grateful for this fine spirit of cooperation."

A follow-up fund raising campaign to raise the goal deficit of $1,100 will be announced within a few days, Dr. Downum stated, and it is hoped and anticipated that the good and loyal people of Chowan County will respond favorably.

Teen-Agers Request Use Of Club Room

The club, which is located in the basement of the Elementary School, provides everything in the entertainment field that would be of interest to teen-agers, including good books, ping-pong tables, a piano, good music for dancing, and a very fine snack bar. It also boasts a powder room, rest room, and a spacious room for dancing as well as another large room for handling big crowds when a special event takes place.

Mrs. Merle Wilkins, chaperone for the club, reports that the youngsters have thoroughly enjoyed the benefits that have been provided for them, and that they have shown their appreciation by their excellent conduct and good attendance.

The teen-agers also take a big part in the operation of the club. It gives them a sense of responsibility and pride to know that they are included in the planning of all events. They work diligently and without complaint when called upon for their wisely know that what has to be done is for their own pleasure and enjoyment. The Teen-Age Club has been an overwhelmingly and smooth-running success from the beginning, and it is hoped the good work can continue.

At a recent meeting of the High School Council the board of directors, the boys and girls decided to stage a brief musical program each Saturday night, with students from each home room participating. They also agreed to bring baked foods to sell, in order to help defray operating expenses of the club.

The teen-agers are not asking for any extra help from the sponsoring clubs at the present time, but they do ask that the clubs stand behind them should it become necessary to ask for aid in order to keep the club going and the youngsters happy.
