

SPORTS AFIELD

By Ted Keating

If one were to pick the single most consistently successful lure for all-around fishing in most parts of the continent, there is little doubt in the mind of Robert Page Lincoln that the winner would be the fly-and-spinner combination in its many forms, shapes and sizes. This combination is an absolute killer for smallmouth bass.

Now the attraction of this lure does not lie in the fly itself but in the revolving spinner, the twinkle and gleam of which catches the fish's eye. It is the spinner that is all-important, and the fly is complementary, giving body to the lure. Of course, the fly's function is quite vital, too. You can fish with a bare hook on the spinner shaft but you won't catch fish.

There is one qualification Lincoln makes in the bass fly used on the spinner shaft, and this is that it be without wing feathers. The reason for this is that when a fly is added to the spinner it does not seek to imitate a fly, but a minnow. Why have wing feathers if the fly is supposed to look like a minnow?

The use of silver ribbing on a fly with no hackle is a good lure; and a solid silver-wound body is frequently a killer. Chiefly, however, you can rely on the typical hackled flies in the regulation patterns such as Coachman, Professor, White Miller, Yellow Sally, Black Gnat and so on. For bass these should be in No. 1/0 size, with either a No. 2 or 3 spinner to back them up.

The No. 2 spinner is best for average shore fishing, but for flowing water the larger No. 3 may be better. Because spinners in these sizes are very small, they need a bright finish to be at their best. This means no inferior finish is suitable. I think that if you used nickel or silver entirely you won't miss out on much. Gold is my second choice.

As to whether you should use a single spinner on the shaft or a double (tandem) spinner depends on the water. For ordinary fishing the single spinner is recommended. The tandem is most useful in clouded water, or in fairly fast to fast water.

Add a spinner to streamer flies, preferably with hackle streamers and with head and optics painted on, and you double the attraction of the lure. Fly-and-spinner fishing for pan fish has made vast strides recently. Fine leader tips are needed because the lures are so tiny. A fly (wingless) tied on a No. 10 or 12 hook will go best with a No. 0 spinner on a shaft for this kind of fishing.

"Without a doubt. He's absolutely honest."

Elizabeth City Holds First Place Position

tered 13 hits. Taylor was credited with the victory, his second for the season.

Victor Zink started for Elizabeth City but was relieved by Tommy Reeves in the eighth after yielding six hits and five walks. Buck Wheeler hit a home run in the first inning, scoring two runners ahead of him.

Edenton 2, Rocky Hock 8
With James Perry of Williamston on the mound for Rocky Hock, the Edenton Colonials were easily defeated on Hicks Field Monday night. Perry allowed only five scattered hits and fanned 16 Edenton batters.

Rocky Hock went on a rampage in the third inning to score five runs on five hits. They added another run in the fourth and two in the seventh.

Edenton's two runs were scored in the seventh when Harrell singled scoring the two runs when the bases were loaded.

Whitson started on the mound but gave way to Gene Taylor in the seventh.

Brooks led Edenton at bat with two of the five hits, while Jordan. Hurry and Sexton each made two hits for Rocky Hock.

Edenton 2, Colerain 7

Against Colerain Tuesday night, the Colonials had trouble solving the slants of Lefty Wayne Belch and the veteran Oscar Hoffard and went down to a 7-2 defeat.

Colerain bunched their hits in the second and eighth innings, scoring three times in the second on three hits and getting four unearned runs in the eighth on four hits and two Edenton errors. Poor defensive play on the part of the Colonials figured in much of the Trappers' scoring.

Ronnie White, Gene Taylor and Mack Cherry pitched for Edenton, giving up eight hits between them, with White being charged with the defeat.

Taylor drove in one Edenton run with a double and J. L. Harrell drove in the other run with a single. Claude Griffin had two hits to lead the Colonials at bat.

Dallie Farless and Tracy Hughes had two hits to pace the Trappers at the plate.

Rocky Hock 5, Colerain 11

Though leading 5 to 4 until the seventh inning Rocky Hock weakened and was defeated on Hicks Field Thursday night 11 to 5 by Colerain. Colerain went on a rampage in the seventh to score five runs and added another run in each of the last two innings.

Dal Farless went the route on the mound for Colerain and was touched for 11 hits. Hoppe and Hardison pitched for Rocky Hock and gave up six hits. Jimmy Hardison led at bat for Rocky Hock with three singles and a double.

Rocky Hock 5, Elizabeth City 8

In Elizabeth City Tuesday night Rocky Hock was defeated 8 to 5. It was a mound duel between Franklin Hollowell and Sills, with Hollowell's cause badly injured by ragged fielding. Hollowell held Elizabeth City hitless until the fifth inning and in the sixth inning four errors played a big factor in Elizabeth City scoring four runs. Rocky Hock committed six errors in the game.

Hollowell went the entire route, but Sills was replaced by Reeves in the eighth. Sills gave up seven hits and Hollowell allowed six hits.
