A LIFT FOR TODAY

Though I speak with the tongues of men and angels, and have not charity, I am become as sounding brass or a tinkling cymbal.—1 Cor. 13:1.

The place of charity, or love, like that of God, is everywhere.

Our Father, help us to love others and to be kind and friendly as Jesus was.

Encouraging

An Edenton group is to be commended for the interest taken in having some branch of the State government take over the U. S. Fish Hatchery at Edenton which was closed July 1. It is understood that the Federal government will turn over the six-acre property in fee simple.

Closed only since the first of July, already there are signs of deterioration, so that instead of a place of beauty and attractiveness, the place stands in good stead to become an eyesore.

The Edenton group, composed of Mayor Leroy Haskett, Geddes Potter, J. H. Conger, Gibson Brickle and William P. Jones, went to Raleigh Friday in order to confer with Governor William B. Umstead, and the chief executive was interested to such an extent that he called in the heads of various departments and instructed them to come to Edenton at an early date to inspect the fish hatchery property with a view to the State taking it over.

It would be little short of a crime to allow the property to become an eyesore and eventually be sold by the government in a run-down condition. The site would be very valuable to the community in a number of respects, even if it used only as a picnic grounds or a place to attract tourists to tarry for a while to rest.

The Herald hopes the delegation from Raleigh will be favorably impressed with the property to such an extent that they will recommend that the State will take it over.

The "good old days" are gone but there are people who think they would like to have them back.

A budget is a good thing for any family if the family will carry it out, but it won't work miracles by itself.

Friendly criticism may be extremely hopeful though it is not pleasant to the ear.

What has become of the old-fashioned man who believed that great wisdom was to be found in the nation's capital?

HEARD & SEEN

By "BUFF"

Miss Mamie Hogg had a birthday Friday and she says she didn't know there were so many "mocking birds" in Edenton who would sing "Happy Birthday" so beautifully by way of the telephone. These greetings made her very happy and Miss Mamie says that while she remembers the date of her birthday very well, she has a rather hard time to remember the number of years she's been around. Well, a lot of us would like to clip off some of 'em, but it just will not work.

A fellow called in the office Saturday morning to mail a few papers to friends. He had labels already addressed to stick on the paper and as he licked one label his face puckered up a bit, as he said, "I don't see why in the dickens they don't flavor that paste with chocolate." Well, some other flavor would do just as good.

Mrs. George Byrum the other day received a card sent from Bergen, Norway, sent by Miss Elizabeth Larrick, a former Edenton school teacher. Miss Larrick left New York June 25 on the S. S. United States for a tour of Europe and she says it seems like a dream. She has taught school in Washington, D. C., since she left Edenton, but it's so long ago I'm wondering how many of her former Edenton pupils she'd recognize if she happened to visit Edenton one of these days. Yep, time passes swiftly.

Jim Daniels was a "hot sister" Tuesday afternoon. Due to ill health of Dr. J. A. Powell, Jim has been acting president of the Edenton Colonials. On Tuesday police were instructed to move the sign at the intersection of Broad and Queen Streets which advertises the games on Hicks Field, so that Jim was about as "hot" inside as he was out, and he was popping off on the outside when I saw him. Besides, he was giving a wad of chewing gum a fit as he was trying to figure out a reason why the sign was ordered removed at a time when the baseball club needs all the fans at the games it can get in order to pay out. At any rate Town Council allowed the sign to remain until the baseball games are over.

Town Clerk Ernest J. Ward, Jr., doesn't smoke and, therefore, is not accustomed to carrying cigars around in his pockets. But he did just that on Saturday morning. His shirt pocket was bulging out with cigars and, smiling all over his face, he was passing 'em around. Reason! Well, he became the daddy of a 7-pound, 7-ounce daughter in Chowan Hospital Friday night at 10 o'clock. He was not as nervous Saturday morning as he was several hours before the arrival of Miss Ward at the hospital. The newcomer's name is Joanne Marian Ward. Then again at Town Council meeting Tuesday night he again passed out cigars. It was a good week for cigars, for Johnny Oliver also stopped his car on Broad Street to hand me a stogie. He's the daddy of a baby boy.

Rain or not, quite a few folks living in the Advance community enjoyed a chicken fry Monday night of last week. Rain began to fall just after the chicken was fried and despite a strong wind, flashes of lightning and a downpour of rain the group enjoyed a bountiful meal. But when it came time to go home the lawn was slick and water gathered so that it was necessary to remove shoes as folks waded in water to reach their cars. With some strong pushing all cars moved away and everyone apparently enjoyed a wonderful evening. Well, that's the way a lot of picnics wind up, but they're fun just the same.

It's a small world. Take Carey Bunch, who is now at the U. S. Fisheries Station at Mammoth Spring, Ark. Carey wrote a brief note the other day saying: "I have run across one other Edentonian since I have been in Arkansas. He was Willis Jordan, brother-in-law of Tom Goodman. He lives in St. Louis and was over in Arkansas on a fishing trip. I guess you will meet someone you know most anywhere now a days. This is a great fishing country."

Revival Services Begin At Ballard's Bridge August 15

Rev. Chas. W. Holland, Jr., of Louisville, Ky., Will Be Speaker

Revival services will begin at Ballard's Bridge Baptist Church on Sunday, August 15. The pastor, the Rev. Ralph W. Knight, will preach at both services on Sunday, and the evangelist, the Rev. Charles W. Holland, Jr., will preach at both services on Monday and each day through Sunday, August 22. Services will be held at 3 o'clock in the afternoon, and 8 o'clock each night, and the public is cordially invited to attend.

The Rev. Mr. Holland is pastor of the Lee's Lane Baptist Church in Louisville, Ky., and is in much demand as an evangelist with a pastor's heart. The adult choir, the youth choir, and a junior choir will render special music throughout the week, with the pastor leading the singing and Mrs. Edna Asbell playing the piano. Miss Jean Evans will accompany the youth choir.

Special emphasis will be made each night with recognition being made to special groups attending the services. They are as follows:

- Monday night—Family night.
  - Tuesday night—Women's Night.
  - Wednesday night—Sunday School night.
  - Thursday night—Training Union night.
  - Friday night—Youth night.
  - Saturday night—Men's night.
- Although there will be special emphasis each night with appropriate awards given, everyone is invited to attend each service.

John A. Holmes Speaker At Rotary Club Meeting

John A. Holmes was the principal speaker at the Edenton Rotary Club's meeting Thursday afternoon. Mr. Holmes explained the duties of a Rotary district governor, who will visit the Edenton club early in September, as well as pointing out what a Rotary governor reasonably expects from a Rotary Club.

Mr. Holmes urged President Gilliam Wood to hold a club assembly before the governor's visit so that reports can be submitted relative to organization and programs and activities of the various committees reported.

Farmers Urged To Send Soil Samples

Chowan farmers who are planning to establish a permanent pasture this fall are urged to take a soil sample and send it to the Soil Testing Laboratory, North Carolina Department of Agriculture at Raleigh, immediately.

In case a soil sample has not already been taken and lime applied to the land, the soil sample for pasture should be marked "For Lime Only". If this is done a farmer can receive this soil test report much quicker than if the laboratory must take time to make a complete analysis.
