Missionary Speaks At Presbyterian Church

Miss Nolie McDonald Will Illustrate Work In Africa Tonight

Miss Nolie McDonald, a Presbyterian missionary to Africa for many years, and now home on furlough, will speak and show slides of her work tonight (Thursday) at 8 o'clock in the Presbyterian Church. Miss McDonald, a sister of Mrs. R. E. Leary of Edenton, has spoken here before, and has many friends and acquaintances in Edenton. The public is cordially invited to attend this service, which will be inspirational as well as informative. An offering will be taken to assist Miss McDonald in her work.

Other services in the Presbyterian Church are scheduled as follows: Sunday School Sunday morning at 10 o'clock with classes for all age groups. Morning worship at 11, with his church beginning Tuesday, August 31, and continuing through Sunday, September 12. Services will be held every night at 7:30 o'clock except Monday.

years. Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock will be held the regular mid-week prayer service. The lesson will be from the book of Joshua. Each Thursday evening at 8 o'clock is held the young people's service, which includes singing hymns and Gospel choruses, Bible study, a season of prayer led by the young people themselves, and a lesson on Christian living. Everyone is invited to attend all services.

Revival Begins In Assembly Of God Church August 31

Speaker Will Be the Rev. William F. Voodre Of Florida

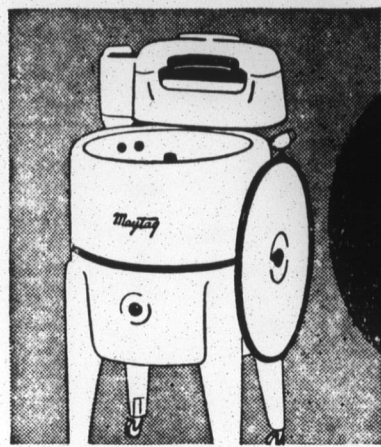

The Rev. J. H. Anderson, pastor of the Assembly of God Church, First and Bond Streets, announces that evangelistic services will be held in groups. Morning worship at 11, with his church beginning Tuesday, August 31, and continuing through Sunday, September 12. Services will be held every night at 7:30 o'clock except Monday.

Piano Lessons Taught In Both White Schools

Miss Ruby Grey Baker of Buies Creek will be the new piano teacher in the Edenton white schools this term. She will teach in both the Elementary School and in the Junior-

Senior High School. Piano instruction will be on a tuition basis and the first to apply will be enrolled until the classes are filled. Applications can be made to the superintendent or to the principals prior to the opening of school. Miss Baker was graduated with honors from Flora MacDonald College with a degree in music. She taught last year in Salemburg and she comes to Edenton highly recommended by the college and her patrons.
