

N. C. State Fair Will Begin October 19th

Children's Days Will Be Observed October 19 And October 22

A cordial invitation to Chowan residents to participate in the 1954 N. C. State Fair, both as exhibitors and by their attendance, is issued by Dr. J. S. Dorton, manager. The state fair this year will be held next week, October 19-23.

The fair manager commended the participation of Chowan County for their participation in the state fairs of former years, saying, "Our great N. C. State Fair would not be as successful as it has been over the years without the cooperation of the citizens of Chowan."

Dorton said he expects the 1954 to be "our greatest effort. I am sure the citizens of Chowan will help make it so."

School children of North Carolina will be admitted free on two days of the fair this year. Tuesday, October 19, has been set aside as "Wake County School Day" and Friday, October 22, has been designated "Young North Carolinians 4-H Club Day." On each of these days, school children will be admitted to the fairgrounds on special tickets distributed by school superintendents.

Senior Play

Six strangers find shelter in a mansion ten miles from any other house. Mysterious happenings frighten them. The lights go out. A snow storm blusters around doors and windows. The four people of the mansion startle the six strangers. But love conquers all, and all's well that ends well, in the Chowan High School Senior Play, "Mystery At Midnight." Ida Ann Blanchard is publicity chairman; Ann Hollowell, stage manager; Emmett Earl Bunch, electrician.

And, by the way, you should see the monster, the papier mache work of the sponsor. This image plays a great part in the play. Come see his play. You will enjoy it on Friday, October 15, at 8:00 P. M.

TEXT: "Ye canna expect to be bath grand and comfortable."—J. M. Barrie.

It is said that singer Dinah Shore's daughter keeps her mother's ego from expanding. Every time Dinah Shore tried singing one of her ten thousand dollar songs to the child, the little girl begins a dreadful crying, exclaiming, "Don't sing for me. I want Nurse to sing for me."

No matter what heights a man may attain among the majority of his fellows, he cannot please everyone. And being "grand" is not a comfortable position. There are those who try to pull you down and others who are completely indifferent to your grandeur. It is not possible for all of us to attain greatness in any field of endeavor. However, each of us has a place where he can be important to someone. There are little kindnesses—songs we can sing—to someone. And these kindnesses will be appreciated more than all the gestures a "grand" person can make. There are many empty places you can fill and be very comfortable in filling them. Our world needs "Nurses" more than it needs "grand" people.

ARTHRITIS?

I have been wonderfully blessed in being restored to active life after being crippled in nearly every joint in my body and with muscular soreness from head to foot. I had Rheumatoid Arthritis and other forms of Rheumatism, hands deformed and my ankles were set.

Limited space prohibits telling you more here but if you will write me, I will reply at once and tell you how I received this wonderful relief.

JUVENILE CRIME INCREASING

Juvenile crime statistics are terrifying. Well over a million youngsters are picked up by police every year, 435,000 are brought to court, more than 100,000 held in jail, and 40,000 sent to training schools.

And it isn't just the big city slums that breed crime. Delinquency is increasing faster in small and medium-sized towns than in big ones. Crime can breed in the country club section as well as in the slums — Changing Times.
