News About Clubs In Chowan County

By HATTIE SINGLETARY Home Demonstration Agent

Mrs. H. M. Phthisic, along with 104 club women from 69 counties in North Carolina, returned Saturday night from the 1954 citizenship tour to the United Nations.

"Hearing Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt talk was one of the highlights of the entire week's study tour," said Mrs. Phthisic. "Touring the United Nations Building was also an interesting experience," she explained.

The group also talked with Clark M. Eichelberger, director of the American Association for the United Nations, and Mrs. Eleanor Roberts, Economic and Social Council Consultant for the Associated Country Women of the World.

The North Carolina delegation presented to Mrs. Roosevelt, Mrs. Roberts and Mr. Eichelberger, baskets of home grown, home conserved North Carolina foods.

On Friday of last week the club women visited Hyde Park, the Vanderbilt estate, and West Point. They returned to Raleigh late Saturday night, tired, but inspired with a zeal to support the United Nations and its specialized agencies.

Mrs. T. O. Ashell and the home agent visited in Currituck County last week to study their Home Demonstration Crafts program.

Many of the Currituck Club women made crafts for sale, for personal use, and for gifts. We were especially interested in their braided rugs as Mrs. Ashell will teach this craft at our November Crafts Workshop.

Club Schedule Tuesday, October 19 at 2:30 P. M. the Ryland Home Demonstration Club will meet with Miss Gertrude Jackson.

Wednesday, October 20 at 2:30 P. M., the Byrd Home Demonstration Club will meet with Mrs. H. M. Phthisic.

Sunday, October 24, United Nations Day.
