

Christmas Party In Windsor Dec. 8

Special Invitation Issued to Children in Chowan County

A special invitation to Chowan County children to attend the Santa Claus Parade in Windsor Wednesday, December 8, has been issued by the Windsor Chamber of Commerce and Merchants Association.

The parade, scheduled to begin at 7 P. M., will feature well-known Mother Goose characters—Cinderella, Three Little Pigs, Jack in the Box, Old Mother Goose—mounted on professionally built, illuminated floats.

The Edenton High School Band has been invited to perform in the parade along with the Windsor High School Band.

After the parade Chowan County Kiddies are invited to stop by to see Santa Claus and get complimentary packages of Christmas goodies.

Burgess Whitehead, one time professional baseball player with the New York Giants, is chairman of the event and issued the special invitation to Chowan County children and their parents. As an added attraction for the Santa Claus parade, Windsor residents will be vying for prizes to be awarded that night for the best Christmas light decorations.

Weekly Devotional Column By JAMES MACKENZIE

What Christian books shall I buy as Christmas presents? Here are a few of the best:

For Children

Hurbut's Story of the Bible ($4.95). This book is an absolute must for every child. It tells the Bible story from Genesis to Revelation in the language of children. It is excellent reading for grown-ups, too. Many families read a story each night from it as part of their family devotions. This book will give your child a knowledge of the Bible story equal to or greater than that of most Sunday School teachers, and, I fear, many preachers. Another book, Ege's Bible Story Book ($2.95) is equally as good as Hurbut's. Both of these books are well bound and contain hundreds of pictures.

For Adults

Halley's Pocket Bible Handbook ($2.00). How they print this book to sell for two dollars I do not know. It contains close to twelve hundred pages packed full of useful information about the Bible, several maps, diagrams and pictures, notes and contemporaneous ancient history and archeological research, and a brief outline of church history. It is the most valuable little book on the Bible I know of; it should be in the library of every Sunday School teacher, and it sells at a ridiculously low price.

Peloubet's (or Smith's) Bible Dictionary. Brief articles of practically every subject, person and place in the Bible. This is a priceless reference book. I have no up-to-date catalog on this book, but up until recently, at least, it was priced at $2.50.

How To Buy A Bible

First off, let me advise against buying your minister a Bible for Christmas. He probably has more than he can use right now. If he is in the market for a new Bible, chances are he knows just exactly what type of Bible he wants. But if you just must buy the poor man a Bible for Christmas, let him pick it out himself—he knows much more about buying Bibles than you do. Also, steer clear of those thick art-edition Bibles that are sold from house to house. They are beautiful and gaudy, but the binding on them is usually very cheap and unsubstantial under all the gilt and the extra-Biblical information in them is usually of little or no value. If you must buy a Bible, let me suggest either the Scofield Reference Bible (which contains a very helpful outline of the text) or the Thompson Chain Reference Bible (which will assist you in finding all the verses bearing on any one subject).

When you buy a Bible, check first of all the cover—is it some kind of leather or morocco? Then (and this is important) check the inside of the cover—make certain it is either cloth or morocco. Many Bibles have good leather covers, but the covers are lined with paper with the result that in a very few months the Bible pulls loose from the covers. Then check the type—are the letters large and easy to read? Then, last of all, check the paper—is it of good quality? The best way I know of to determine this is to compare its color with that of the paper in other Bibles. Poor quality paper has a tendency to have a dingy look. As a general rule, the whiter the paper is, the better quality it is.

The best place to buy Bibles I know of is the American Bible Society, which prints them for distribution, and sells them without profit. A good text Bible may be purchased from them at about half of what it would cost anywhere else. Since the society is a non-profit organization supported by all Bible-believing Christian churches,

I do not hesitate to give it a plug in this column. You may obtain one of their catalogs by writing to them in care of the National Book Building, Richmond, Va.

The books mentioned in this column may be purchased at any Christian book store.

Senior Class News By ALICE PARRISH

The first Senior Interview for this week is with Harold Lloyd Bunch. Harold, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd C. Bunch, Route 1, Edenton, was born on October 9, 1937. Mr. Bunch is a farmer. Harold likes sports while his favorite food is steak. Being president of the Enterprise Community I-H Club, he is also in the Stagecraft Club and drives a school bus. A member of the Rocky Hook Baptist Church, Harold plans to continue farming upon graduation.

Mary Leggett Browning, daughter of Mrs. Mary L. Browning of 291 Granville Street, Edenton, was born on July 14, 1937. Mrs. Browning is Public School Music Teacher. Mary Leggett is quite interested in music and well talented in it, as well as art which she also enjoys. She is a member of the Beta Club and Tri-Hi-Y Clubs. Accompanist for the Glee Club, she is also in the Treble Clef Club and a member of the Edenton Methodist Church. Upon graduation, Mary Leggett plans to attend Greensboro College.

Tay Byrum, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert G. Byrum, 611 North Broad Street, Edenton, was born on April 22, 1937 in Edenton. While Tay's favorite interests are sports and girls, his favorite dish is steak. A member of the Boys' Monogram Club, Tay played the position of quarterback on the football team and guard on the basketball team. Due to a broken collarbone, he was unable to participate this year. Tay is a member of the Edenton Baptist Church and plans to go to prep school after graduation. We wish these three Senior Class members the best of luck in all of their future undertakings.

BIBLE CLASS MEETING

The Young Woman's Bible Class of the Edenton Baptist Church will meet Tuesday night, December 7, at 7:30 o'clock at the church. All members are urged to attend.

Housework Easy Without Naggng Backache

When kidney function slows down, many folks complain of nagging backache, loss of pep and energy, headaches and dizziness. Don't suffer longer with these discomforts if reduced kidney function is getting you down—due to such common causes as stress and strain, over-exertion or exposure to cold. Minor bladder irritations due to cold, dampness or wrong diet may cause getting up nights or frequent passages. Don't neglect your kidneys if these conditions bother you. Try Doan's Pills—a mild, astringent. Used successfully by millions for over 50 years. While often otherwise caused, it's amazing how many times Doan's give happy relief from these discomforts—help the 15 miles of kidney tubes and filters flush out waste. Get Doan's Pills today!
