

Meeting Called For Soybean Growers Friday Afternoon

Farmers Are Urged to Meet and Learn Important Facts

A very important meeting of Chowan County soybean growers will be held at the Court House in Edenton on Friday afternoon, February 18, at 2:00 o'clock, says C. W. Overman, County Agent. Changes in the official soybean grades are in the legislative mill and if these changes are made official it can affect very materially the prices farmers receive for soybeans grown in this area. Prompt action by the growers may alleviate this situation.

"Soybeans are one of our main cash crops in Chowan County," says Mr. Overman. "Prices have been good and returns from this crop has meant much to the income of growers. It is very important that growers be informed of the proposed changes in the United States grading standards for soybeans and make every effort possible to keep them fair to the farmer as well as the buyer."

"Mr. Soybean Grower, it is your responsibility to attend this meeting and know the facts. Prompt action on the part of growers may mean much."

Doctors Speak At Lions Club Meeting

Emphasize Importance Of Heart Fund Support

A very interesting and educational program was presented to the Edenton Lions Club Monday evening, when motion pictures with sound track were shown, depicting the vital functions of the human heart.

"Some of us perhaps are not aware of the fact that heart disease is the number one killer in America today and that over four million citizens have defective hearts," said Dr. Wallace Griffin, who had charge of the program. "However, when this trouble is detected in time, there are known treatments which often restore one to a point where they may resume normal living, in many respects," he continued.

At the conclusion of the pictures, Dr. Griffin called upon Dr. A. M. Stanton, who has agreed to direct the campaign this year in Chowan County for funds to be used by the American Heart Association in further research with a view of discovering even greater scientific methods of combatting this dread disease.

"Although great strides have been made through surgery, wonder drugs and the proper prescribed rest, however, there still remains opportunity for even more important discoveries through scientific research in the care and treatment of the heart," said Dr. Stanton. "We can expect through these measures to prolong the life span of our children, as well as the adults, if we will lend our financial aid to this work," he continued.

Dr. Martin Wisely also spoke briefly in urging that everyone support the forthcoming campaign for funds with which to carry on this work.

Dr. Griffin expressed his appreciation to Miss Elizabeth Moore, who procured the pictures, and also N. J. George, who operated the projector.

At the suggestion of West Byrum, Jr., the club voted to dispense with all programs and devote their time following each dinner to practice for the forthcoming Lions minstrel, except the meeting on February 28, since a program has already been arranged for that evening. The date for the minstrel show will be announced at a later date, Byrum stated.

Bruce Jones, Jr., was a guest of the club.

You find yourself refreshed by the presence of cheerful people. Why not make earnest effort to confer that pleasure on others?

—Mrs. Lydia M. Child.

Local Fidelis Club Holding Meetings

Nursery Open For Use Of Children During Club's Meetings

The Fidelis Club, recently reorganized Staff NCO Wives' Club, met Tuesday night of last week for a get-acquainted meeting.

After the business was transacted Carmen Andelora entertained the group with piano music. Refreshments were served during the social hour.

The club met again Wednesday night of this week in the game room of the Staff NCO Club. A nursery will be open for children whose mothers attend the club's meetings.

SOCIETY MEETING

The Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist Church will meet at the Church Tuesday night, February 22, at 7:30 o'clock. Mrs. Gerald James will be the hostess and all members are urged to attend.

A MEMORY

Treasures are ours to have and hold,
Some are priceless—values worth gold,
Memories and dreams are treasures, too,
Especially when they are of you.

The clock of time on its merry chase
Has left a scar we cannot erase,
We miss you more as the days go by—
How slow the moments seem to fly!

God needed you in His heavenly banquet,
We know that's why He took you away,
Though our hearts are heavy, lonely and sad,
Memories of you cheer and make us glad.

Your face is gone, your voice is still,
There's an emptiness here we cannot fill,
Like a rosebud in a garden of flowers,
Memories of you just linger for hours.

Sleep on, loved one, on Jesus' breast—
Safe in His arms now take your rest,
We'll prepare in this earthly place
To meet you with Him and see your sweet face.

Mother, Dad and Sisters of Barbara Lou Parrish, who died 1 year ago February 27.
