Many At Unveiling of Bronze Marker On Norcom House

more Plantation

With favorable weather prevailing Sunday afternoon, a large number of people gathered at Sycamore Plantation, owned by G. H. Harding, where a bronze marker was unveiled on the Thomas Norcom house. The marker was un veiled by Ann Wells and Helen Pruden, descendants of Mr. Nor com, who built the house possibly as early as 1667. The unveiling was sponsored by the Sir Walter Raleigh Chapter of the Colonial Dames of the Seventeenth Century. Prior to the unveiling a meeting
