New Officers Will Be Installed Tuesday, November 15

The Fidelis NCO Wives Club held its business meeting Tuesday, November 1, when the president, Mrs. R. E. Hollingsworth welcomed three new members, Mrs. J. J. Stano, Mrs. W. R. McElroy and Mrs. J. Hicks.

During the meeting officers were elected which included the following: President, Mrs. Claude Estes; first vice president, Mrs. D. F. Richardson; second vice president, Mrs. R. C. Keyes; secretary, Mrs. C. C. Hook; treasurer, Mrs. Alvin T. Backherms.

Plans were made for the installation of these new officers Tuesday night, November 15, at 7 o'clock. Husbands will be invited to accompany the members of the club to a buffet supper for the occasion. Appointed on a committee to make the necessary arrangements are: Mrs. W. E. Mabe, chairman, Mrs. J. R. Sparks, Mrs. W. R. McElroy and Mrs. J. Stratton.

A committee was also appointed to assist in decorating a Marine float for the Edenton Christmas parade, which includes Mrs. Alvin T. Backherms, Mrs. Clifford Turner and Mrs. J. J. Stano.

It was announced that the monthly cake sale will be held Tuesday, November 22 in the Alhambra room in the Post Exchange.

Following the business meeting members enjoyed delectable refreshments which were arranged by Mrs. Eleanor Day, Mrs. Claude Estes and Mrs. R. C. Keyes.

Colored Halloween Party Big Success

The Negro annual Halloween party held last week was a very successful affair from every standpoint, and as a result a large group of youngsters enjoyed a good time every minute of the party.

The Negro Junior Woman's Club desires to thank the Edenton High School Band and its director, Charles Jenkins, for the excellent music during the party as well as its sincere appreciation to each business concern and individual who cooperated in any way to make the Halloween party such a splendid success.

GUM POND CLUB MEETS

The Gum Pond Home Demonstration Club met November 2 with Mrs. Carey Evans. The meeting opened by singing "Old North State." Mrs. Clarence Bass gave the devotional. The roll was called with 11 members present. The minutes were read and approved. During the business the president, Mrs. Marvin Smith, gave the club the $5.00 check which was presented her at the Achievement Day program for being the most outstanding club.

Several members of the club plan to attend the husbands supper at Oak Grove Community Building Friday night, November 11. Plans were made for a Christmas party in December. In the absence of Mrs. Byrum, home agent, Mrs. Carlton Nixon gave an interesting demonstration on using sewing machine attachments with the help of Miss Beulah Evans and Mrs. Clarence Bass.

Following the demonstration the hostess served food soft drinks and cookies.

Chowan Students At State BSU Convention

Chowan County was represented at the 26th annual Baptist Student Union Convention which was held at the First Baptist Church in Greensboro November 4-6. There were an estimated 1,200 students in attendance, coming from various colleges over the state.

Chowan students attending the convention included Evangelina Copeland of Campbell College, Jean Evans of Woman's College and Sara Margaret Asbell, Fred Layton, Ray Lane and Horace Eason of East Carolina College.

"God's World—My Life—Now" was the theme of the convention. Some very inspiring addresses were presented. Among the program personalities were Miss Juanita Garris and Tommie Canipe, college students, who did summer missionary work in Jamaica last summer.

Chowan 4-H Tobacco Grading Team Wins State Fair Honors

The Chowan 4-H tobacco grading team, which consists of Dick Lowe, Sherwood Harrell and Carlton Perry with Jackie Byrum as an alternate, won eleventh place in the State flue-cured tobacco grading contest which was held at the State Fair. The total of thirty-four 4-H, FFA and NFA teams entered the contest. The Chowan team did exceptionally well considering the fact that the boys had received very little practice prior to the contest. Dick Lowe was high scorer with a total of 73.5 points out of a possible 152.

TAX COLLECTIONS

Growers Of Peanut Urged Check Prices

Peanut growers should not sell their product until they are certain market price is in excess of support price, R. Flake Shaw, executive vice-president of the State Farm Bureau cautions eastern North Carolina growers.

Shaw said many farmers had in the past made the mistake of selling their crop before the value had been accurately determined. Growers should have the peanuts graded before offering them for sale. This procedure will prevent market sales for less than support price, he said.

The Farm Bureau leader called on peanut growers to work with the Peanut Growers Cooperative Association so that price supports can be made effective.

Chowan Juniors To Stage Play Nov. 11

"Take Your Medicine" Will Begin at 8 O'clock

An evening of rich entertainment is guaranteed by members of the Junior Class of Chowan High School, when they present "Take Your Medicine," a three-act farce by Felicia Metcalfe, Friday night, November 11, at 8 o'clock in the school auditorium.

The entire action of this farce takes place in a hospital room.

Young "Bill Jackson", played by Woody Knight, gets himself into a terrible jam when he is mistaken for a doctor of medicine. His fiancée, "Angela Warren," played by Peggy Copeland, doesn't allow him to correct this impression. Their uncle, "Henry K. Dodson," a patient, high-tempered and domineering person ably portrayed by Steve Burch, thinks he is a surgeon and promises to give Angela and Bill $50,000 for the first life Bill saves. "Miss Holt", the head nurse of the hospital, disagreeable, and dictatorial, is played by Barbara Bunch. "Patricia Pryor", an attractive nurse, gracious personality, is played by Marjorie Morris. "Dottie Carleton", a cute, pert nurse, is played by Shirley Ann Bass. Frances Chappell plays the part of "Lottie Nelson", another pretty and attractive nurse. "Jack Benson", an orderly, always joking, is played by Joe Privott. "Jonathan Packett", a patient, is the pet of the hospital, and his part is played to perfection by Carroll Peele. "Miss Dovie Finkledink", a fixy old maid, is played by Anne Pearce. "Dodie Blake", an undergraduate nurse, is ably portrayed by Faye Boyce. The demented patient is played by Bernie Baker.

Musical entertainment will be furnished by Kay White, Peggy Smith, Emily Leary, and Joe Wiggins.

The public is cordially invited to attend. A small admission will be charged.

Accuse not nature, she hath done her part:
Do thou but thine!

—John Milton.

J. Paul Holoman Is Ordained Sunday As Baptist Minister

Accepts Call as Pastor Of Whiteville Grove Baptist Church

On Sunday afternoon, November 6, at 3 o'clock, a very impressive and solemn service was held in the Edenton Baptist Church.

In the presence of numbers of friends of like faith, and of other faiths, J. Paul Holoman was ordained to the Baptist ministry and in the closing prayer, led by him, dedicated completely his life to the preaching of the Gospel.

In preaching the ordination sermon, Dr. Douglas Branch, president of the N. C. Baptist Convention and a friend of Mr. Holoman, used as his text—"Who Is Unto Me If I Preach Not The Gospel." Needless to say the warmth of this message coming through the lips of Dr.

Branch kindled the hearts of all who heard it.

Others taking part in the service of ordination were: W. J. Berryman of the Edenton Baptist Church who led the opening prayer; Associational Missionary G. M. Singletary, who presided; the Rev. Lee A. Phillips, pastor of the Warwick Baptist Church, who submitted the report of the presbytery as its secretary and who also presented the Bible; the Rev. L. C. Chandler, pastor of the Center Hill Baptist Church, who delivered the charge; the Rev. B. L. Raines, pastor of the Rocky Hook Baptist Church, who led the ordination prayer. All ministers present participated in the laying on of the hands. Mr. Holoman has accepted the call of the Whiteville Grove Baptist Church at Belvidere to become its pastor.
