

Mrs. Charles Sutton Loses Life In Auto Automobile Wreck

Two Cars Collide at About 11 O'clock Saturday

Mrs. Flossie Mae Sutton, 45, was killed in an automobile wreck about 11 o'clock Saturday morning several miles from Columbia. Mrs. Sutton, together with her husband and her four-year-old son, Johnnie, were in a car which collided with another car driven by Howard Simpson, 24-year-old Negro of near Roper. Simpson was also seriously injured in the crash and all were rushed to a hospital.

Mr. Sutton suffered a fractured arm, cut lip and internal injuries, while the boy received a serious head injury. Simpson received internal injuries and will face a charge of manslaughter.

Funeral services for Mrs. Sutton were held Monday afternoon at the First Christian Church, of which she was a member. The Rev. Preston officiated, assisted by the Rev. E. C. Alexander and burial was in Beaver Hill Cemetery.

Surviving are her husband, Charles H. Sutton; her mother, Mrs. Mary Crawford Britton of Edenton; a son, John W. Sutton; a daughter, Mrs. Dorothy T. Faircloth of Edenton; four brothers, H. B. Batton of Edenton, E. R. Batton and I. C. Batton, both of Fayetteville and C. R. Batton of Norfolk; two sisters, Mrs. J. A. Hart of Sanford, N. C., and Mrs. W. E. Cuthrell of Edenton and four grandchildren.

Aces Lose Region One Championship

The Aces then kicked and Cary fumbled with Edenton recovering on the Cary 37. The Aces marched to the Cary 15, where Wilson fumbled and Cary recovered. The Aces held firm so that in three plays Cary had lost two yards. Maiden for Cary was rushed on the kick, so that the ball rolled out on the Cary 21.

In four plays the Aces again scored a touchdown. Holland picked up a couple of yards and Chan Wilson drove to the Cary 5. Bunch failed to gain and then Holland skirted right end for the TD. Wilson again failed to go through the line for the extra point.

As the quarter ended Bunch and Wilson alternated to mark up a first down to the Cary 48.

To start the second quarter Holland passed to Downum for a first down. Downum and Wilson lacked only inches of another first down and Holland rammed through to make it. With the ball on the 15-yard line Wilson again fumbled. It was from that point the Cary team played an inspired game. Maiden passed to Yarborough, who ran 81 yards for a touchdown, but the play was called back due to a penalty. Cary was forced to kick and Aces had a break in getting the ball on the Cary 3.

Holland then passed to Johnny Kramer, who raced for a touchdown, but this play was also called back due to a penalty. An the next play Cary intercepted a Holland pass. Near the end of the half the Aces were forced to punt and Cary completed another pass for 37 yards, going to the Edenton 4, from where Yarborough went around end to score. On a kick for the extra point the ball hit the goal post, but fell between the bars, which proved to be the winning point of the half game. Half-time score was Edenton 12, Cary 7.

With Edenton kicking to start the second half the Aces wited and Cary chalked up five successive first downs to score about midway the quarter. During this quarter the Aces looked possibly their worst of the season.

Late, but too late in the final quarter, the Aces took on new life but lacked the punch to turn in the winning touchdown. Downum recovered a Cary fumble on the Edenton 19. The Aces chalked up six first downs with Bunch, Wilson and Holland carrying the ball to the Cary 14. The Cary line stiffened, so that in three plays only six yards were gained. On fourth down Holland was thrown for a loss in an attempted pass play, and Edenton's chances to win were smothered, for after three Cary plays the game ended.
