Weekly Devotional Column

By JAMES MacKENZIE

The best way I know to describe the character of Satan is to say that he is the direct antithesis of our Lord and Saviour, Jesus Christ. Whatever Jesus is, Satan is not; and whatever Jesus is not, Satan is. Jesus is the Light of the World, Satan is the prince of the power of darkness; Jesus is the Son of God, Satan is the son of perdition; Jesus came to seek and to save that which was lost, Satan is as a roaring lion, seeking whom he may devour; Jesus is the Truth and the Life, Satan is a liar and the cause of both physical and spiritual death; Jesus works openly, Satan is a deceiver; Jesus made a sacrifice for us, Satan would make of us a sacrifice for himself; Jesus is our Advocate before the Father, Satan is our accuser; Jesus came to serve others, Satan came to serve himself; Jesus loves us, Satan hates us; Jesus is the True Shepherd, Satan is the false shepherd; Jesus reveals God to us, Satan blinds us to spiritual truth—and so on. Having set himself up in opposition to God and His purpose, Satan has taken upon himself the direct opposite of all the characteristics and attributes of God.

In considering his works, we must remember that Satan's motive is to overthrow the Kingdom of God and set himself up as ruler of the universe, and that his overruling passion is hatred for the Persons of the Trinity and for all who have allied themselves with God. His first purpose is to keep lost humans from receiving Christ, and his second purpose, in keeping with the first, is to keep saved humans from maintaining by life and by word an effective testimony to the Truth. This he does often by persecution, such as that in Communist lands, in many parts of South America, Spain and Quebec. But Satan is a coward, and he prefers the sneak attack to the frontal assault. More often than by open violence, Satan carries on his nefarious underhanded schemes by slander and insinuation.

Through the years, false doctrine and false teaching have marked Satan's attempt to infiltrate the Christian Church and destroy the effectiveness of its testimony. In recent years this attempt has resulted in the revival of two ancient heresies—modernism and latitudinarianism. Let us look at them.

Modernism, which is basically the denial of the authority of the Bible as the inspired, inerrant, only Word of God; and which results in the denial of all that is supernatural, is anything but modern—indeed, all the seeds of modernism may be found in the first words of Satan on record (See Genesis 3:1-7). Modernism starts out with a diplomatic affirmative: "Yea." It continues with subtle denial of the authority of God's Word: "Hath God Said?" When Satan finds this denial is unchallenged he continues on more openly and deliberately misquotes the Word of God: "Hath God said ye shall not eat of every tree of the garden? What God had really said was 'Of every tree of the garden thou mayest freely eat; but of the tree of knowledge of good and evil thou shalt not eat of it' (Genesis 2:16-17). Finally Satan becomes bold enough to contradict the Word of God—in effect, to call God a liar. "Thou shalt not surely die." God had said, "Thou shalt surely die." Nor is Satan contented with this, but he must go a step farther and cast doubt on the motives of God: "For God doth know that in the day ye eat thereof, then your eyes shall be opened, and ye shall be as Gods . . ."

Satan is the same today as then—and the course of twentieth century modernism has been the same as that in the Garden of Eden. It has resulted in blatant denial of the Word of God, the Deity of Christ, and, in more recent years, His bodily resurrection from the dead (which doctrine is a cardinal doctrine of the Christian faith—see I Corinthians 15:12-19).

The second evidence of Satanic attempt to infiltrate the Christian Church is the appearance, since World War II, of Latitudinarianism, the false doctrine that one religion is as good as another, and that one may be saved apart from the atonement provided by God's Son upon the cross. In keeping with its past history, the National Council of Churches recently held a "Festival of Faith" in San Francisco, at which "Christian" ministers raised their voices in prayer with Moslems, Buddhists, followers of Confucius, and Jewish rabbis. How can these men claim to be loyal to Christ, who claimed to be the only way to God, the only means of salvation, and who said that apart from Him all men are lost and condemned? In the current issue of Look Magazine is an even more shocking espousal of this doctrine since it comes from a source that has through the years been strongly opposed to it.

SCIUROID RODENT—Stop looking, Woody. That's the nicest thing you're going to be called after what happened on Groundhog Day. You saw your shadow and that means six more weeks of winter, according to legend. You're also known as "aardvark," "groundhog" and "woodchuck." Don't look 'em up. The dictionary is upside-down.

Next week I shall discuss the history, or biography of Satan, and the Christian's answer to Satan.
