Stage Set For Lions Variety Show Tonight

Curtain Scheduled to Rise Promptly at 8 O'clock

'Final arrangements have been completed for the ninth annual Edenton Lions Club show to be held tonight (Thursday) at 8 o'clock in the Edenton Elementary School auditorium.

Douglas Ames of radio station WCDI will be master of ceremonies while Lt. Jim Bowers will be production manager and Conleth MacDonald will be musical director. An excellent variety show has been planned for the evening.

West Byrum, Jr., chairman of the show, is well pleased with the progress that has been made in selecting talent in Edenton and Chowan County, including the Edenton Naval Auxiliary Air Station, and feels that those who attend will have a real treat in store

The Edenton Lions Club uses the receipts from this show for blind rehabilitation and conservation of sight in Edenton and Chowan County. Last year several pairs of glasses were purchased for needy children and several children were sent to clinics for eye treat-

Cancer Drive Is Under Way To Get $1600

Volunteers Will Make House-to-House Canvass

After weeks of preparation, volinteers got into action this week in the American Cancer Society's 1956 educational and fund-raising crusade. Nationally that organization is seeking $26,000,000 this year for its three-front cancer conrol program of medical and scientific research, public and professional education and service to pa-

The quota for Chowan County is 1,600.

Many of the volunteers began a door-to-door canvass of homes throughout the city, in most cases being assigned to their own neighborhoods or to other areas with which they are familiar. Others set out to canvass offices, industrial plants and stores.

"Fight cancer with a check-up and a check" is the slogan for the 1956 campaign

"Besides soliciting funds, our volunteers are carrying on a vital ducational drive," Mrs. Richard Hardin declares. "At every house and business establishment visited they are leaving life-saving literature. This material accents hope and assurance in the cancer fight. It points out the great importance of periodic health examinations as

and tells of cancer's seven danger signals. "The fine spirit of all those takng part in the campaign promises complete success for it. We confidently rest our case against cancer on their efforts and on the concern of the people of Chowan County in saving lives from man's cruelest enemy."

Proposals Received For Revaluation Of Property In County

Committee Will Soon Set Up Specifications For Bids

Chowan County Commissioners at their meeting Tuesday morning reported receipt of sealed proposals from four or five concerns to revalue property in Chowan County and to furnish a map.

The proposals were turned over to the Revaluation Committee, composed of J. N. Pruden, Philip Mc-Mullan, William P. Jones, Ernest Ward, Jr., and West Byrum, who will immediately open the proposals and after making a careful study prepare specifications to be submitted for bids.

The Commissioners are very anxious to get the revaluation work started as soon as possible.
