

Plans About Ready For Fat Stock Show And Sale April 25th

Nine Steers and Many Hogs Scheduled to Be Entered

Plans for the April 25 Chowan County Fat Stock Show and Sale are nearly complete, as arrangements for the second annual event go into final stages under sponsorship of the Edenton Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Warren Twidly is general chairman for the livestock show and sale, which will be held Wednesday, April 25, at the Edenton American Legion hut. Judging starts at 10 A. M., and the sale will begin at 1:30 P. M.

Robert Marsh, assistant county agent, says nine steers and numerous hogs will be entered by youngsters of Chowan County 4-H and Future Farmers of America Clubs.

'Steers will be entered by Cheryl Hobbs, of Belvidere, the only girl entrant; Carlton Perry, Ronald Perry and Jack Perry of Advance; Bryant White and Edgar Leon Halsey, Jr., Edenton; Joe Hollowell of Cross Roads; H. Ivey Ward of Ryland, and Jackie Byrum of Valhalla.

Swine will be shown by Sherwood Harrell, Jackie Harrell, Carlton Perry, Ronald Perry and Jack Perry, all of Advance; Dan Ward, of Hobbsville; Johnny Winborne, Ray Evans and Leon Evans, of Oak Grove, and Richard White, of Cross Roads.

"Zeka" Rochelle of Elizabeth City is billed as auctioneer for the sale that starts at 1:30 P. M.

Rayce John G. Wood, Jr., chairman of the Buyers Committee, says anyone may buy. He added that anyone may buy.

Several local businessmen and firms have indicated that they will

Continued on Page 2—Section 1

District Officers For VFW Installed

Ceremony Held Sunday In Local VFW Home

With a goodly number on hand at the District VFW meeting held in the VFW home Sunday, new officers were installed for the year.

The principal speaker for the occasion was Forrest Dunstan of Elizabeth City, past department commander.

Mr. Dunstan also presided over the installation ceremony during which the following were installed:

Commander, Carlton Garrett of Elizabeth City; senior vice commander, Hunter Morgan of Sunbury; junior vice commander, Carlton Gilliam of Windsor; quarter-master, Jack Stewart of Elizabeth City; advocate, Walter Swain of Plymouth; surgeon, Henry Quinn of Edenton; chaplain, Ralph Hunter of Plymouth; trustee, Bill Perry of Edenton.

CIVIC CALENDAR

Second annual Chowan County Fat Stock Show and Sale will be held Wednesday, April 25, at the American Legion hut on the Windsor highway. Judging will take place at 10 A. M., and the sale will begin at 1:30 P. M.

Red Cross bloodmobile scheduled to again visit Edenton Wednesday, May 2, from 9 A. M. to 3 P. M., at the Edenton armory. Chowan's quota is again 100 pints.

Edenton Woman's Club art show will be held in the old Edenton Furniture Company building Friday and Saturday, April 27 and 28.

Chowan Hospital Auxiliary will meet at the nurses' home Friday afternoon, April 20, at 3 o'clock.

Edenton Presbyterians will celebrate the tenth anniversary of their present building Sunday, April 22, with services at 11 A. M., 2 P. M. and 7:30 P. M.

Continued on Page 2—Section 1

Sunday Speaker

REV. DAVID C. CRAWFORD

For the celebration of the tenth anniversary of the Edenton Presbyterian Church, Sunday, April 22, the Rev. David C. Crawford, former pastor, will be the principal speaker.

24 Cases Listed On Docket For Term Of Superior Court

Civil Term Scheduled To Convene Monday, April 30

Clerk of Court this week released the calendar for the April term of Chowan County Superior Court which is scheduled to convene Monday, April 30, at 10 o'clock. Judge J. Paul Frizelle of Snow Hill will preside over the term, which will be for trial of civil cases only. There are 24 cases on the calendar.

Among the cases appearing on the calendar are the following: Louis E. Francis vs. David M. Smith.

The matter of a purported will and testament of Nellie E. Jones, deceased.

J. W. Chappell vs. Josiah Chappell.

J. W. Chappell vs. Henry M. Layden.

Albemarle Motor Co. vs. Billie Continued on Page 2—Section 1

FIREMEN CALLED OUT

Edenton firemen were called out Monday afternoon, when a tree was burning on the Blades Lumber Mill yard. Due to the grass in the vicinity the firemen were called to prevent a spread of the blaze.

Local Cooperative Produce Exchange Making Progress

Deadline April 30 For New Members to Join

The growers' sign-up committee of the Chowan Cooperative Produce Exchange met at the home of Edgar Pearce Wednesday night of last week, when results of the sign-up to date was computed. The incorporating committee determined the next steps to be taken and how they should be accomplished.

The growers sign-up indicates to present they have in view the following acreage of crops: 200 acres of snap beans, 25 acres of butter beans, 40 acres of lima beans, 100 acres of sweet corn, 10 acres of squash, 35 acres of cucumbers, and 10 acres of sweet peppers. Growers also indicate that if the cooperative grades cantaloupes and watermelons they would like to so

Presbyterians Will Hold Anniversary Sunday, April 22

The Rev. David Crawford Will Be Principal Speaker

The Rev. David C. Crawford of Leesburg, Va., will be the speaker at the tenth anniversary in the present building celebration at the Edenton Presbyterian Church Sunday, April 22. In addition to the regular 11 o'clock morning worship service, the celebration will include an evening Lord's Supper service at 7:30 o'clock. In connection with the celebration a reception will also be held Saturday afternoon at the church at 4 o'clock. The celebration will make it possible for Mr. Crawford's many friends in the other churches of Edenton to visit and worship with him.

In recent years the active membership of Edenton's Presbyterian Church has more than tripled, and the Sunday School is well over five times as large as it was. Ten years ago, however, there were but few Presbyterians in Edenton, and the present building must ever stand as a monument and a testimony to their faith, vision, and devotion. At that time Mr. Crawford was pastor of the church, and to him goes much of the credit for spearheading the building campaign and carrying it through to completion. He is remembered by all who knew him as a gifted and Spirit-filled minister of the Gospel, with a special appeal to the young people.

A cordial invitation is extended to everyone to attend these and all services at the Edenton Presbyterian Church.

Cub Scout Pack Meets April 24th

Theme of Meeting Is Cub Scout Bird Watchers

Cub Scouts and their parents of Edenton Pack 159 will meet Tuesday evening, April 24, at 7:15 o'clock at the Edenton Junior-Senior High School Cafeteria.

It will be the regular monthly Pack meeting. "Cub Scout Bird Watchers" will be the theme.

The Cubs have worked this month preparing exhibits and skits for the Pack meeting in connection with the theme about birds. Presentations will include bird nests, feeders, calls and houses.

Lt. Col. R. R. Baker, Cubmaster, said recognition will be given to Cubs who have completed advancements recently.

AWARDED SCHOLARSHIP

Caleb White, a member of this year's graduating class of the Edenton Junior-Senior High School, has been notified that he has been awarded a scholarship at the University of North Carolina.

Young White plans to enroll at the university in September.

ONE OF FAT STOCK SHOW ENTRIES

Above is pictured Cheryl Hobbs, 13-year-old 4-H Club girl of near Belvidere, who will enter her bull, "Buck", in the second annual Chowan County Fat Stock Show and Sale. Cheryl is the only girl entrant in the livestock event, which will be held Wednesday, April 25 at the American Legion hut on the Windsor highway.

Frederick Asbell And Ester Layton Win Poster Prizes

Declared District Winners In Elizabeth City Friday

Frederick Asbell of Chowan High School and Ester Layton of the Rocky Hock school, won first prizes in the annual conservation poster contest held in the arcade of the Virginia Dare Hotel in Elizabeth City Friday. Young Asbell won first place in the fifth grade contest, while Miss Layton was first place winner in seventh grade competition. Miss Layton won first place last year in the sixth grade in both the county and district contests.

All the posters made in Chowan County were very good and the students are to be commended for the fine posters they prepared this year. Chowan County also had two posters which were considered for second prizes. These were posters made by Erwin Griffin and Brad Williford both of the Edenton schools.

Judges in the District contest were Jack Larimer, Wildlife Biologist of District Two, New Bern, N. C.; S. A. Dowell, District Four, Elizabeth City, N. C., and A. H. Veazey, assistant State conservationist, Soil Conservation Service. This was the Albemarle Soil Conservation District contest sponsored by the Elizabeth City Chamber of Commerce. Conservation posters were entered from Currituck, Camden, Pasquotank and Chowan counties with a first and second prize for the fifth, sixth and seventh grades.

Winners by grades were: Fifth grade—Frederick Asbell, 1st place. Continued on Page 3—Section 1

Governor Of Lions Guest Of Edenton Club Monday Night

"Leadership Demands Leadership" Topic Of Address

Jesse Spruill of Washington, N. C., who is deputy district governor of N. C. Lions District 31-F, was guest speaker at the Lions Club meeting Monday night. Spruill used as his topic "Leadership Demands Leadership" and he advised the club of the necessity for men with leadership to fill the various offices of the club and pointed out the fundamental qualifications that made a person a competent leader. Spruill listed the following fundamental qualifications which make a person a leader and center: 1—Sound judgment of men and events. 2—A sincere liking for peoples of

Continued on Page 3—Section 1

Bloodmobile Again Scheduled To Be In Edenton May 2nd

Chairman Joe Swanner Appeals For Donations

Joe Swanner, Chowan Red Cross blood chairman, announces that the bloodmobile is scheduled to again appear in Edenton Wednesday, May 2, and will be located at the armory from 9 o'clock in the morning until 3 o'clock in the afternoon. Chowan County's quota will again be 100 pints of blood and Mr. Swanner expresses the hope that more civilians will realize the need and importance of donating blood.

At the last visit of the bloodmobile Chowan exceeded its quota when 148 pints were donated. However, of this number 106 pints were given by Marines, so that only 42 civilians saw fit to cooperate in this important program.

Mr. Swanner, at the next visit hopes to again have the cooperation of the Marines as well as members of the Heavy Mortar Company, N. C. National Guard.

Training Union Members Qualify For State Drill

Edenton and Rocky Hock Members Qualify

By qualifying for the State Memory Drill, eight members of the Junior Training Union of the Baptist Church have again upheld the tradition of the church by being represented at the State Assembly each of the past several years. They are: Sandra Bunch, Jim Partin, Dickie Cobb, Pat Mooney, Jean Goodwin, Ann Wells, Ruth Overman and Meg Wiggins. They were coached by Miss Mildred Munden, who has become quite accustomed to sending participants to the State Drill each year.

In order to qualify for the State Drill they have been successful in the local church drill, the Chowan Associational Drill, and the Regional Drill during the Regional Convention at Corinth Church, Elizabeth City, last Friday. This entitles them to represent the Edenton Church, the Chowan Association and the Eastern Region along with 10 other juniors—at the Caswell Baptist Assembly this summer.

The Edenton Juniors are happy that eight junior neighbors from the Rocky Hock Baptist Church will join them in representing the association and the region by qualifying at the Regional Convention. They are: Carroll Bass, Graham Bass, Scott Ober, Danny Long, Rebecca Harrell, Etta Rae Bunch, Annie Ruth Nixon, Marlene Gilley. They were coached by Miss Beulah Evans.

Miss Coffield has accepted the scholarship offered by the University of North Carolina. She will enter graduate school there in September and will work toward a master of arts degree in sociology with a minor in anthropology.

Hospital Auxiliary Will Meet Friday

The Chowan Hospital Auxiliary will meet Friday afternoon, April 20, at 3 o'clock in the nurses' home. Mrs. West Byrum, Jr., president, urges a full attendance and also all members to pay their annual dues by that time.

Contributions In Red Cross Drive $1,000 Short Of Goal

Appeal Made For Last Minute Contributions

A final check on the Red Cross Fund Raising Campaign this week revealed Chowan County short of its goal over $1,000. The quota set for Chowan County was $2,962. The total funds raised to date are $1,917, making a shortage of $1,045. It may be that many have not been canvassed and would like to contribute. If so, please send donations to the Red Cross, Edenton.

Two years ago a supplementary

Contest Develops In Primary Election To Be Held May 26

Earns Scholarships

MISS ANN COFIELD
A student at Woman's College, Greensboro, Miss Ann Cofield has been offered scholarships at Tulane University and the University of North Carolina. She has accepted the latter which also includes a Ford Foundation scholarship and free tuition scholarship.

With last Saturday at noon being the deadline for candidates to file for the Democratic primary election which will be held Saturday, May 26, only one contest developed for Chowan County offices. This contest will be for Chowan County's representative in the General Assembly. Albert G. Byrum filed as a candidate a few weeks ago and on Friday of last week John F. White filed for re-election.

Mr. White, though recently suffering a heart attack, is gradually recovering and his doctors say he is physically able to perform the duties of the office. He is a veteran legislator and has represented Chowan County in eight regular and two special sessions.

Mr. Byrum is well known throughout the county and some years ago served on Town Council as Third Ward Councilman.

All other county officials filed for re-election and will have no opposition. They include the following:

Judge of Recorder's Court, Marvin Wilson; Solicitor, Weldon Halliwell; Register of Deeds, Maurice L. Bunch; County Treasurer, George Hoskins; Coroner, Hubert Williford and the following County Commissioners: West Byrum, J. A. Webb, William E. Bond, Raleigh Peele and Carey Hollowell.

Registrars will sit at the various precinct polling places April 28, May 5 and 12 from 9 A. M. to sunset to register voters and on Saturday, May 19, from 9 A. M. to 3 P. M., they will again sit at the polling places in order to challenge any voter.

On election day, May 26, the polls will be open from 6:30 A. M. to 6:30 P. M.

Chairman Of Easter Seals Appreciative For Drive Support

Report Not Complete But Returns Are Gratifying

A warm thanks in behalf of crippled children was extended to contributors to the 1956 Easter Seal campaign by Ernest J. Ward, Jr., president of the Chowan County Easter Seal Society.

Ward said that although final campaign returns have not yet been determined, indications show that the society has reached and possibly surpassed the previous year's campaign, insuring continued, and perhaps expanded, services to the area's crippled.

"The county's cooperation in the appeal has been most gratifying," Ward stated, "providing new hope for many crippled youngsters. Our contributing friends can rest assured that the Chowan County Easter Seal Society will take every possible step to maintain and develop the services these children need."

Late contributors can still send their contributions to the Chowan County Easter Seal Society, P. O. Box 429, Edenton.

Gelbach Speaker At Rotary Meeting

George Gelbach, a member of the Edenton Junior-Senior High School faculty, was the principal speaker at last week's Rotary meeting. He was introduced by James E. Wood, who was in charge of the program.

Mr. Gelbach held the rapt attention of Rotarians as he spoke about early historical facts having to do with the U. S. Navy and Marine Corps.

Boy Scouts Taken On Bird Hike At NAAS

Cub Scouts of Edenton Pack 159 went aboard the Edenton Naval Auxiliary Air Station Monday afternoon for a bird hike. The tour started at 4 o'clock.

"Cub Scout Bird Watchers" is the April theme for the local Scouts and approximately 40 of the boys observed bird lore at the Marine Base.

Lt. Col. J. E. McDonald was guide for the bird hike. Colonel McDonald, commanding officer of Marine Attack Squadron 225, is an amateur ornithologist.

A group of Marines volunteered to assist in guiding the Cub Scout bird watchers.

John F. White and Albert Byrum Opposing Candidates

With last Saturday at noon being the deadline for candidates to file for the Democratic primary election which will be held Saturday, May 26, only one contest developed for Chowan County offices. This contest will be for Chowan County's representative in the General Assembly. Albert G. Byrum filed as a candidate a few weeks ago and on Friday of last week John F. White filed for re-election.

Mr. White, though recently suffering a heart attack, is gradually recovering and his doctors say he is physically able to perform the duties of the office. He is a veteran legislator and has represented Chowan County in eight regular and two special sessions.

Mr. Byrum is well known throughout the county and some years ago served on Town Council as Third Ward Councilman.

All other county officials filed for re-election and will have no opposition. They include the following:

Judge of Recorder's Court, Marvin Wilson; Solicitor, Weldon Halliwell; Register of Deeds, Maurice L. Bunch; County Treasurer, George Hoskins; Coroner, Hubert Williford and the following County Commissioners: West Byrum, J. A. Webb, William E. Bond, Raleigh Peele and Carey Hollowell.

Registrars will sit at the various precinct polling places April 28, May 5 and 12 from 9 A. M. to sunset to register voters and on Saturday, May 19, from 9 A. M. to 3 P. M., they will again sit at the polling places in order to challenge any voter.

On election day, May 26, the polls will be open from 6:30 A. M. to 6:30 P. M.