Before presenting the boys, Scoutmaster Habit proudly reported that the Scouts had realized their goal in raising $1,000 for the camping trip to the Blue Ridge Mountains. The actual expense of the trip is about $900, but Scoutmaster Habit said, the boys set a goal of $1,000 in order to purchase some necessary equipment for the trip. He stated that at the time the goal was set, some doubt was expressed that it could be realized. However, Mr. Habit, with the present interest in the Boy Scouts, held no doubt but that the amount could sented at the Lions International Rotary meeting Mr. Habit reported that up to that time $997.55 was in hand, Sitting next to Mr. Habit Lionesses, are in Florida for the was Col.
