

Lack Of Manganese Shows Up In Crops

Tests Are Conducted By Soils Division Representative

Manganese deficiency is showing up particularly in peanuts and soybeans in many fields in Chowan County, according to County Agent C. W. Overman. Tests conducted by Dr. Adolph Nehlich of the Soils Division last year showed reduction in yield of peanuts as much as 500 pounds per acre and in soybeans as much as six or more bushels per acre.

Chowan farmers who have this appearance in their peanut and soybean fields may contact the county agent. As far as possible, he will visit the field and determine if manganese deficiency is really the trouble. The county agent will be glad to assist growers in ordering the chemical from a distributor in Raleigh.

Dr. Nehlich is conducting several tests in Chowan County and in neighboring counties to learn more about how this problem may be most easily solved. The chemical may be mixed with the fertilizer another year and applied to the soil for greater efficiency, Overman says.

4-H'ers Back From Camp Swannanoa

By ELVIN C. TOPPIN
Cross Roads Local 4-H Club
Chowan 4-H campers are very glad to be back home after a week spent at Camp Swannanoa. The group left Edenton Monday morning, July 9, about 6:30 o'clock and arrived at camp that evening about 4:30 o'clock, which was somewhat earlier than expected.

While in camp everyone made pin-up lamps and on Thursday and Friday mornings the boys made model electric motors which can be operated with a dry cell battery. On Saturday morning, July 14, the group left camp at 8 o'clock and arrived in Edenton about 5:30 o'clock, very tired after the long trip and happy to be back home. Four other counties had representatives in camp, including Transylvania, Yancey, Surry and Yadkin.

Chowan 4-H Club members who attended the camp were: E. C. Toppin, Tommy Harrell, Richard White, Kathryn Tynch, John Belch, Fahey Bunch, Ann Hobbs, Bonnie Lou Welch, Ronald Perry, Edgar Halsey, Jerry White, Janet Parrish. They were accompanied by Robert S. Marsh, assistant county agent; Miss Helen McDonald, assistant home agent, and Mrs. Bristow Perry, local leader of the Advance Club.

America by 1975 will be a land in which business expenditures on plant and equipment probably will be about double what they are today.

The National Association of Manufacturers cites a 1954 study of the Joint Committee of the Economic Report (Federal) which discusses this expected development:

The report, taking 1965 as a goal year, says in part:

"... Business expenditures on plant and equipment are assumed to amount to $60 billion per year by 1965 compared to $38 billion in 1953. . . . This probably implies a more rapid annual rate of modernization of productive facilities than now prevails and probably a considerable opportunity to decentralize or disperse industry both as a means of reducing the vulnerability of our industrial plants in case of war and as a contribution toward improved working, traveling, and living conditions for employees."

TEXT: "Forgetting a wrong is mild revenge."
—Anon.

Sitting in a park one afternoon, two housemaids were discussing their employers. One of them remarked,

"Oh, my missus is fine, but her husband is very cross."

"He is?" questioned the other girl. "What do you do about it?"
"Oh, I get even with him," said the first maid. "Every time he scolds me, I put starch in his handkerchiefs."

It is human to give some thought to revenge, yet one who devotes more than a passing thought to

Hybrid Corn Average Reaches High Level

According to a report just released by the North Carolina Crop Reporting Service, 70.5 per cent of the State's 1956 corn crop was planted with hybrid seed. In terms of land area this amounts to 1,418,000 acres which is 9.6 per cent greater than the 1,294,000 acres planted with hybrid seed in 1955. The hybrid acreage last year amounted to 60.5 per cent of the total.

"getting even" shows himself to be insincere, unsure of himself or his position.

The dictator must have revenge on anyone who dares to challenge his authority. The child "gets even" with an adult or another child who appears more important. Weak people try to "save face" by hurting or humiliating others. Strong, secure people do not need to prove their strength or security.

"Remember, when you hear someone say that he is going to 'get even' or has obtained revenge, you are hearing the voice of a weak, unsure person who is trying to make you think that he is important.

Though acreages planted to hybrids have mounted steadily during the past ten years, they took on added emphasis during 1955 and 1956. As late as 1949, less than one-third of the State's crop was hybrid, and it was not until 1954 that the proportion approached the half-way mark at 46.5 per cent. The next year, however, the proportion jumped 14 percentage points and this year it jumped 10.
