

Higher Enrollment In Edenton Schools

Largest Gain Is Registered In Colored Schools

On the whole there was an increased enrollment in Edenton schools last week, according to Superintendent John A. Holmes.

Principal Gerald James reported that 403 students enrolled the first day in the Junior-Senior High School, which is 20 more than the first day last year.

In the Edenton Elementary School, Principal Ernest Swain reported 607 enrolled, which is exactly the same number as last year.

In the Negro schools there was a greater increase, Principal D. F. Walker reporting that the first day enrollment was 937, which is 116 more than last year.

At St. John's Negro School 73 enrolled which compares with 67 last year, an increase of six.

Enrollment is gradually increasing since the opening day, however.

Negro
Edenton: Lois Howard, Henry Wills, Mary Elizabeth Sessions, Marie Ferebee, Ruth Boston, Kate Rayner, Baby Boy White.
Hertford: Elaine Revell, Wilma Skinner, Eli Springs.

Births
Births in the hospital during the same week were: Capt. and Mrs. Joseph C. Shea of Edenton, a daughter; T/Sgt. and Mrs. Carl E. Barrier of Edenton, a son.

Chowan Ranked 48th In U. S. Counties For Watermelon Acreage

According to the United States Department of Commerce report for 1954, just released, Chowan County ranked 73rd among the 100 leading counties in the United States in acreage of watermelons harvested during the year. Chowan's acreage for that year was 1,529.

Watermelons were harvested for sale from 417,838 acres on United States farms in 1954, with 285,301 acres. Marion County, Florida, was the leading county in watermelon acreage, with 9,859 acres—2.4 per cent of the U. S. total. Gonzales County, Texas, ranked second with 8,284 acres; Barnwell, South Carolina, third with 7,646; Suwannee, Florida, fourth with 7,618 acres, and Chesterfield, South Carolina, fifth with 7,107 acres.

The result of the election follows: President, Calvin Davis; secretary, Delores Layton; treasurer, Barbara Bunch; chaplain, Carroll Peele, and song leader, Mack met this week to elect officers for Bunch.
