Plans Are Complete For Chowan Fair

Continued From Page 1, Section 1 weighed and judged. Prizes offered by Mr. Pearce are: First, $5.00; second, $3.00; third, $2.00, and a dollar each for the next seven best entries. Contestants having the ten largest pumpkins will enter them in the Fair, where the three best ones will receive a prize of $2.00, $1.00 and 75c for the first, second and third respectively.

The other added attraction to the Fair this year is the trophy offered by Gilliam Wood, president of Home Feed and Fertilizer Company of Edenton.

This award, a handsome, 28-inch engraved trophy, will be awarded to the grand champion non-commercial exhibit which is sponsored by 4-H, FFA, FHA, NFA, school home rooms, farm families, community exhibits, etc. The winner of this trophy will not be announced until Friday, September 28, after which time it will be displayed with the winning exhibit. The winner's name will be engraved on the trophy each year. In case an organization wins the trophy for consecutive years, it becomes permanent property. Merely winning the trophy for three years does not constitute membership—it must be won for three consecutive years, and another trophy will be issued. The trophy will be on display in the main exhibit hall during Fair week.

There are many individual articles which homemakers and girls may exhibit in the Fair. All garden vegetables, cut flowers, oil, watercolor, pastel paintings and drawings, table cloths, luncheon sets, pillow cases, quilts, handmade collars and cuffs, children's clothing, infants' clothing, housecoats, caps, etc., and canned vegetables and fruits are just a few of the many things that women and girls may enter.

PAIR OF BIRDIES—Nate Feeman, golf pro at the Nevele Country Club in Nevele Falls, N.Y., demonstrates his sure-feather "birdie" technique for novice golfers. Nate has trained a pair of parakeets to sit on the rims of his pupil's glasses. If the novice keeps his eye on the ball while he swings, his head will not tilt, and the birds will remain in place. If he moves his head, however, the feathered pair will take to the air.

Livestock, poultry, field crops, vegetable crops, crafts, etc., are among the many things that men and boys may exhibit.

The Chowan County Fair is open to all residents of Chowan County, regardless of whether they are civilians or servicemen.

"You are urged to take your premium list, study it, and have as many exhibits at the fair as possible," says W. A. Perry, president of the Fair. "If you don't have a premium list, you may get one from me, Thurman Harrell, Carroll Byrum, Troy Toppin and Bob Marsh. Remember the Chowan County Fair—September 24-29. Be sure to have an exhibit there!"

The midway attraction will be the Virginia Greater Shows, offering amusement and rides of various kinds.

Watch lest prosperity destroy many exhibits at the fair as possible. —H. W. Beecher

New Fire Truck Arrives In Edenton

In Edenton Monday were Ned Combs, delivery engineer and W. Kitchen of Suffolk, salesman for the Atlantic Supply Company, who sold the truck. A representative of the Fire Underwriters was here Tuesday to observe a three-hour test run at capacity. All together, with the Edenton firemen, were well pleased with the truck's performance.

With the addition of the new truck, the Edenton Fire Department has three trucks and a rescue truck, not to mention the old Reo truck now in storage. The present fire station is able to house only two trucks, so that one will be temporarily housed in the old Byrum warehouse back of Hotel Joseph Hewes, which was purchased by the County Commissioners.

It is the purpose to transform the entire present Municipal Building into a fire station, but this transformation is being held up pending the decision of Town Council as to what to do about a town office. A committee is now seeking information from contractors to determine how much more it will cost to construct a new building than to remodel the building now used by the Police and Street Departments. The rescue truck has been parked outdoors ever since it was purchased months ago.
