

Pensioners Urged Check On Income

Eligibility Depends On Amount of Other Income

Veterans and widows and children of deceased veterans who are receiving pension payments from the Veterans Administration should report immediately any increase in income that would raise their annual income above the statutory limitations.

In sounding this warning, VA said that to remain eligible for pension under the law, pensioners of World War I, World War II and of the Korean conflict may not have an annual income from other sources exceeding $1,400 without dependents, or $2,700 with wife or minor children.

VA checks the annual income of those receiving pension through the medium of annual questionnaires which are distributed about January 1 every year.

Later, if the person receiving the pension fails to notify VA promptly of an increase in income which raises his annual income above the statutory limit, payments will be discontinued retroactively to the first of the year.

This creates an overpayment, VA says, and is subject to recovery by the Government.

If the person receiving the pension notifies VA promptly of such an increase, payments will be discontinued as of the date the last payment was made and no overpayment will result.

VA pointed out that veterans, widows and children receiving pension can save themselves inconvenience and possibly money by notifying VA promptly of any increase in income which would put them above the statutory limitations.

Pensions are payable to veterans for permanent and total disabilities of a non-service-connected nature and to the widows and children of deceased veterans for non-service-connected death, providing the applicants are otherwise eligible.

Any VA office can explain full eligibility requirements for pension.

Modern Youth

Visitor—I suppose, Joany, that you are expecting Santa Claus to fill your stockings with all sorts of nice presents. (The boy was from Boston.)

Joany (aged six)—Assuredly not. I threw the Santa Claus myth into discard years ago. I have no sympathy with those, either young or old, who are obsessed by such an antiquated and obsolete complex.

Sunday School Lesson

THE CREATION STORY

International Sunday School
Lesson For October 7, 1956.

Memory Selection: "And God saw everything that he had made, and behold, it was very good."
—Genesis 1:31.

Lesson Text:
Genesis 1:1-5, 26-31.

For this, the last quarter of 1956, we are to have the privilege of studying thirteen of the "Great Passages of the Bible." Recognizing that the Bible is the world's greatest book, it should be a pleasure and a real opportunity to make a full study of these passages as they relate themselves to our individual lives.

The first of these passages, "The Creation Story," is fundamental. It is taken from the account of the Book of Genesis, which means literally the book of beginning. The name may be taken to mean the "beginning" of the world and also the beginning of the recorded Word of God, the Bible.

There are three great thoughts in the first chapter of Genesis, which we would do well to ponder. The first of these is stated in the first verse of the chapter, "In the beginning" — before anything was, there was the creator, God, who created the heavens and the earth." The second thought is that

GO TO SOME CHURCH EACH SUNDAY

THEY WON'T BE LATE!

Maybe they were slow in dressing . . . probably they dawdled a bit over breakfast . . . but if you know the gait of those little legs you can be sure they won't be late.

This is one of the fascinating paradoxes of youth. A child may have to be prodded to get to school on time—yet he doesn't want to be late!

And the paradox has implication for parents as they plan the religious education of their children. Jimmy may seem reluctant about his first trip to Church School . . . and Susan may shed a tear when Mother "leaves" her in the Beginners' Department. But wise parents never delay their youngsters' religious training. It is unfair to handicap a child with a late start in the vital process of moral and spiritual growth.

Inquire at the church of your choice, and bring your child to Church School as soon as he is of age.

And, remember, parents need religious training too! If you do not now attend Church regularly, start with Jimmy and Susan.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . .
ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.
