PAGE FOR SECTION ONE

The Chowan Herald Published every Thursday by The Chowan teraid, a partnership consisting of J. Edwin Bufflap and Hector Lupton, at 423-425 South Broad Street. Edenton, North Carolina

... EDILIN BUFFLAP_____Editor dECTUR LUPTON___Advertising Manager SUBSCRIPTION RATES: $2.50 (Outside North Carolina) ___

One carolina (In North Carolina) $2.00 $1.25 Entered as second-class matter August 30, 1934, at the l'ost Office at Edenton, North Caro-ina, under the act of March 3, 1879. Cards of thanks, obituaries, .-solutions of respect, etc., will be charged for at regular ad-THURSDAY, OCTOBER 25, 1956

29 A LIFT FOR TODAY

Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom . . . but he that doeth the will of my Father .-- Matthew 7:21.

God wills for us useful and complete lives on condition that we let go of grudges and selfishness, and open our hearts to His influence.

Merciful Father, may we surrender our lives to the guidance of Thy Spirit.

Are You Properly Registered?

Attention is called to the fact that next Saturday October 27, will be the last day a voter can register in order to cast a ballot in the general election Tuesday, November 5, when a President of the United States will be elected.

There is some misunderstanding about being registered, for there are two sets of registration books in Chowan County. One is for voting for Edenton officials alone and registration only in this book does not entitle a voter to cast a ballot in a county of general election. And vice versa, if a name is listed coly in the county registration books, the voter is not entitled to cast a ballot in an Edenton election.

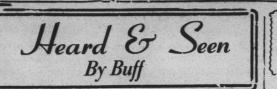

Special attention is directed to young persons who will be 21 years old by November 6 and people who have moved their residence. It is necessary to be registered in the precinct where one resides, so that even if names are on the registration books and a voter moved his residence to another precinct, he must be registered in the latter precinct. The fact that a name is on the registration books in one precinct and the voter lives in another precinct does not entitle him to vote in the election.

On a number of occasions in previous elections voters were denied the right to vote because they were not properly registered. In most cases the voter was registered in only one of the books and learned when arriving at the polls on election day that his or her name was not on the books for that particular election.

It is not only a privilege, but it is a duty for every eligible voter to cast a ballot in an election for public officials. At the present time uprisings are occurring in Iron Curtain dominated countries seeking free elections. It is a priceless heritage still possessed by Americans, so that every last one should take advantage of the opportunity to say who shall be placed in offices of public trust.

It might be well for voters who are not absolutely certain if they are properly registered to visit their respective polling places and find out. Election day will be too late.

Registrars will sit at the various polling places Saturday, October 27, from 9 o'clock in the morning until sunset, when voters can register or ascertain if their names are on the proper books.

Forest Ranger Frank V. White late last week said The Herald should be a daily newspaper instead of a weekly. His reason was that last week an article appeared in The Herald to the effect that he will pay $7 a bushel for cypress balls and $2 a bushel for pine cones. By Saturday night he was swamped and was ordered from headquarters to "call off the dogs." Pine cones and cypress balls came in by boat loads, truck loads and toted to him in bags. Nope, he's not buying any more, for on Saturday his orders were: "We've got enough, don't buy any more." Anyway; quite a few made a nice profit for a day or two.

Mrs. Jack Leary, one of Edenton's fine old ladies, will celebrate her 94th birthday next Thursday, November 1. Some of us think we can remember way back, but Mrs. Leary can remember when some of the Edenton "old-timers" were born. Here's one who wishes her a very happy and peaceful birthday, and many of her friends do the same. "Happy birthday. dear Ida, happy birthday to you!"

Harry Jordan, who hails from Springfield, Missouri, dropped in the office the other day and before he left he gave me a hifalutin' hat. It is one of those wide brim cowboy-looking hats, and I'm lucky to get it, for Harry had to almost fight off Paul Partin, who also wanted it. I started to wear the thing to the football game in Hertford Friday night, but the Missus laid down the law that she'd not go along if I did. Rick Allsbrook then borrowed the hat and wore it to the game and time after time he was call ed Elvis Presley. Well, if that's the reward for wearing the thing I think I'll wear my old hat or go bare-headed.

One every now and then hears older people complaining how mean youngsters are nowadays. And 've heard some of the very same people already tell ng about some of their carrying-on when they were sids and darn the difference. Anyway, the idea of hivalry has not passed altogether from the mind of all youngsters. Over at Hertford Friday nigh' seats were at a premium long before the game start ed, so that just about as many had to stand through out the game as had seats. Two Edenton ladies were standing, near the visitors' bleachers when two yoys got up, turned to the ladies and said, "Ladies you can have our seats." The boys disappeared to quickly, for the two ladies would have gladly giver 'em a kiss or even bought 'em a drink or two.

And speaking about good manners, the Edentor Aces received a fine compliment the other day. The boys stopped to eat at the Town and Country Res aurant near Williamston when they played Tarboro and this week Principal Gerald James received a let er from William S. Coble, the manager, who had this to say: "It was a pleasaure to serve your tean and we would like to commend you and your facult for the fine training and discipline that these boy have received, because we have never served a grouof high school students who were as well behaved o more orderly than these boys were. We did appre iate this business and welcome the opportunity t serve you again." That's just about as good new as hearing that the boys won the football game.

C. D. Stewart dropped a few lines from Morehea-City last week telling me to change the address o the paper, for he's moving on another street. H added this postscript. "You had better come dow rgain for two or three days to go fishing. I think rom what the papers say, that the fish are bitin better. But I suppose they would stop biting righ way if they heard you were coming down." C. D. is no doubt right, for at the rate I catch fish fror piers, it would take two or three days or maybe long er to catch a good mess.

THE CHOWAN HERALD, EDENTON, NURTH CAROLINA, THURSDAY, OCTOBER 25, 1956.

This week I join supporters of I'll say Edenton 20, Ahoskie 0. the Edenton A es in heaping noth-Hertford's Indians will meet ing but praise upon them for the performance they came up with Manteo in a non-conference game the actual score: last Friday night against the Hert- this week. The Indians, after the ford Indians. In my opinion the bruising battle with the Aces last Aces defeated the best defensive week, should come back very strong team they've run up against all this week. I say they'll make the season. I believe that in defeating score just about what they want. Hertford, a team reputed to be the It's hard to make a prediction of strongest team in the Albemarle a game when one team holds the Mrs. S. F. Small Dies Conference this year, the Aces rea- superiority over another that Hertlized the added incentive needed to ford holds over Manteo. Neverthego on and win another conference less, I'll say Hertford 44, Manteo 6.

hampionship-possibly even another State championship.

This week Edenton journeys to should prove interesting. Neither an illness of several months. hoskie to meet another conference team is sporting a very enviable giant. I believe the Aces will record for this season. I do behandily defeat the Indians if they lieve, however, that Tarboro will Lee Small and Van Small, all of enter the game expecting a hard- hold the edge. Tarboro 13, Ply. Edenton; a daughter, Mrs. Will W. fought contest, rather than exer- mouth 7. and shares cising a sense of superiority due to the fact that Ahoskie was defeat- The Williamston Green Wave Va., J. L. Harrell of Goldsboro, J. ed by Hertford and also Tarboro, plays out of their class in meeting A. Harrell of Leesburg, Va., W. A a team which the Aces had little the powerful' Pam Pack of Washlifficulty at running up a one-sided ington this week-another game in D. E. Harrell of Miami, Fla.; three score against. I have stated in which there is no comparison be- sisters, Mrs. J. W. White and Mrs. this column before that Ahoskie tween the two teams. Washington J. B. Harrison of Edenton and Mrs was capable of upsetting the Aces' 54, Williamston 6.

Tarboro and Plymouth will tan

high hopes of winning another con-For the first time last week I Va. and a nephew, E. E. Everett of ference crown if the breaks of the game teaped toward Ahoskie. I made wrong guesses so far as win-Wa. and a nephew, Washington, N. C.

still hold this conclusion. How- I picked Ahoskie over Tarboro and for the Aces to let down a trifle wrong; some actual scores and due to over-confidence. Anyway, I'll say Edenton 20, Ahoskie 0. I'll say Edenton 20, Ahoskie 0.

actual scores. The first line repre-sents the prediction, the second line

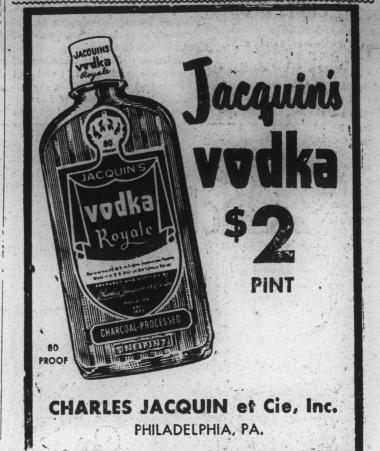

Edenton 13, Hertford 6 Edenton 14. Hertford 0 Ahoskie 20, Tarboro 0 Ahoskie 0. Tarboro 6 Williamston 20, Plymouth 6 Williamston 6. Plymouth 13

Wednesday Afternoon

Mrs. Ethel Harrell Small, 57. died in Chowan Hospital Tuesday gle this week in a game which afternoon at 3:40 o'clock following Surviving are her husband, S. F. Small; three sons, Maurice Small,. Bunch, Jr., of Edenton; five brothers, T. E. Harrell of Petersburg,

Harrell of Washington, D. C., and A. E. Stillman of Windsor: a niece Mrs. H. T. Isaacs of Richmond

Funera services will be held in, will officiate, assisted by the Rev. ever, I also believe the Aces have a much better team than does Ahoskie, but it will be very easy 12 of which were right and two

Children Will Have Their Day

Wednesday night, October 31, is expected to be gala occasion for the youngsters of the community when they will gather in Edenton by the hundredto parade on Broad Street and later enjoy a Halloween carnival on the playgrounds. This affair, in augurated several years ago and sponsored by the Edenton Woman's Club, has not diminished in in terest since the first party was held more or less as an experiment. Children look forward to it with pleasure and older people, too, enjoy the costume and antics of the youngsters.

At the playgrounds free refreshments will be dis tributed to all the children and entertainment wil' also be provided, so that with favorable weather another record crowd of boys and girls is expected.

The Woman's Club is to be congratulated for this worthy project. It means no little amount of effor' to plan and carry out the affair, but the women argreatly encouraged by the wholehearted cooperation they receive on every hand each year. Not only does the parade and party provide fun for the youngsters. but it also prevents fewer minds to be directed to ward mischief in celebrating Halloween. Since the Halloween celebration was inaugurated there is faless destruction of property and less rowdyism than before, so that the Halloween party is very worth while.

What Government Does To You Life magazine vividly restates what is termed an "old truth" in these words: " . . . The more a government does for you, the more it has to do to you." Before government can provide you with any service, it must first take the money from the pockets of you and all the rest of the taxpayers. And it always takes more than it returns, inasmuch as the administrative costs run high. That isn's all-or even the worst of it. Any welfare state eventually turns to a cheap money policy and lets loose the tides of inflation. Every dollar then buys less and less. The result is a murderous combination of sky-high taxes and depreciated monescil

You can go a long way in the world if you make it your preiness to mind your own business.

Faith and patience are great assets and wonderful aid A 200 have them when you need them.

If you ever had a doubt about the two sides to every question, just listen to the campaign orators.

Helping people in their battles in life is just as oric as rescuing the victims of misfortune.

Tick Elliott has just become grandpappy for th first time, but he's waiting for his son-in-law, Clif ord Overman, to pass out the cigars. The othe grandpappy, Charlie Overman, is no doubt doing th same thing. Anyway, Tick says now that he's : granddaddy he's thinking of growing a beard to mak him look older. He don't want to be a grandpappeand still look like he's only "21". Well, if he can' grow any more hair on his chin than he has on th 'op of his head, he'll continue to look like he's "21".

I'm not the only person who is getting very forget ul. Not so long ago Walter Wilkins was a gueof Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Haskett at their cottage a Kitty Hawk and Walter kept complaining that h was mighty hungry and wanted to know how soor breakfast was ready. Finally the word was passed out that the morning meal was prepared and every hing ready to eat-all except Walter that is, for when he began to eat he piped out "Lordy me, I for-"ot my teeth."

Mrs. Pugh Roberson sells a lot of merchandise but not quite everything. The other day she sold Mrs. John Pavlich a unique clothes line. "It will ge good with your washing machine," Mrs. Roberson told Mrs. Pavlich. Little Ferrell Pavlich heard the conversation and the next morning he picked up the clothes line and going up stairs told Mrs. Robersor "Mama wants the washing machine which goes with the clothes line."

As of now, the picture looks rosy for the Edenton Aces to win another Albemarle Conference championship, but there are two more games to be played which can easily throw a monkey wrench in the works. On paper the Aces should have an edge over both Ahoskie and Plymouth, but the actual ontcome will not be known until after the games are played. There is such a thing as over-confidence which has lost many a gridiron battle, and it can just as easily happen for the Aces if they do not play heads-up football. Here's one who hopes the Aces will cop another championship, but they'll have to play good football to do it. See you in Ahoskie!

Mrs. Martin E. Miley of Charleston, S. C., sent in her renewal and had this to say: "I enjoy the hometown paper very much: it's the best way to keen in touch with happenings there. When I get to go home there are few I know any more as Edenton has certainly grown and changed, too."