Leary, Sr., and Geddes Potter, score 7160. A. G. Byrum and George Hoskins, score 6970.

Negro Achievement Program On Nov. 5

Chowan County Negro home demonstration clubs will hold their annual achievement program on Monday night, November 5, at White Oak Consolidated School at 8 o'clock. Guest speaker will be K. J. Eyer, district senior sanitarian. His subject will be "Environmental Sanitation." The public is invited to be present.

Col. Frank Collins Speaker At Rotary

Col. Frank H. Collins, commanding officer of the Edenton Naval Auxiliary Air Station, was the principal speaker at last week's Rotary meeting. Col. Collins especially emphasized the financial contribution to the community as the result of the payroll at the base, pointing out the vast amount paid to military and civilian personnel.

He referred to the possible future development of the base as well as the proposed housing units to be constructed under the Capehart bill.

At the conclusion of his address quite a few questions were asked by the Rotarians.
