Leave For Christmas Given Army Enlistees

A Christmas leave policy has been set up by the Department of the Army whereby anyone enlisting in the Army during the period of December 16 to 31 can get up to 15 days leave and be home for Christmas and New Year's. This announcement was made by M/Sgt. Sherman D. Owen and Sfc Morris M. Williams, local Army recruiters.

Anyone enlisting during the above period, may at their request be given 15 days leave and they will not have to report to the reception center at Fort Jackson, S. C., until January 3, 1957. This enables the enlistee to spend the holidays at home and get paid for the 15 days. Interested young men should contact the Army recruiters at the Edenton Post Office on Thursday of each week from 9 A. M., to 12 noon, or they can phone Elizabeth City 5596 at any time.

Cotton Referendum Tuesday, Dec. 11th

"If at least two-thirds of the growers voting approve the quotas," Mr. Griffin explains, "marketing quotas will be in effect on all farms growing upland cotton in 1957, penalties will apply on 'excess' cotton, and price supports to those growers who comply with their cotton acreage allotments will be available at the full level of effective supports. Under current legislation, this support will be between 75 and 90 per cent of parity, the minimum level within this range depending upon the supply situation at the time the determination is made.

"If more than one-third of the growers disapprove quotas, there will be no marketing quotas or penalties, but price supports to eligible growers (who comply with their allotments) will be available at 50 per cent of parity.

"In either case, acreage allotments will continue in effect for the 1957 cotton crop as a means of determining eligibility for price support."

Mr. Griffin pointed out that the Secretary of Agriculture is directed to proclaim marketing quotas for the next upland cotton crop when the cotton supply exceeds normal quotas are not put into operation, however, unless they are approved by at least two-thirds of the growers voting in a referendum on the question.

Dr. Downum Member Of Optometric Forum

Dr. A. F. Downum of Edenton was among more than 600 vision specialists from seven states who participated in an optometric forum in Charlotte this week.

The professional conclave is known as the "Four Star Forum" because it covers four major fields of optometric activity. Discussions in which Dr. Downum took part included Public Relations, Legal Affairs, Practice Management and Social and Health Care Trends.

The forum is co-sponsored by State Optometric Associations and Societies from North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Kentucky, Tennessee, Virginia and West Virginia.
