NAAS NOTES

By CAROLE McFERREN

Finally... some news to report... it seems that despite the weather, a few hardy souls attended some parties... so without further adieu... Away we go...

Mrs. R. F. Coleman was hostess at a Welcome Coffee honoring Mrs. Cliff Warfield on February 12. There to properly greet Mrs. Warfield were Mrs. Laverne Waterstreet, Mrs. Fat Taylor, Mrs. Kay Wojciechowski, Mrs. Maureen Zander, Mrs. Mary Ann Knopic, Mrs. Connie Fortmeyer, Mrs. Grace O'Connor, Mrs. Illene Calabrese, Mrs. Pat Rechin, Mrs. Laverne Hyneman, Mrs. Mary Ann Skeman and Mrs. Dorothy Long. Captain and Mrs. Warfield and daughter, Valerie, recently arrived in Edenton. Captain Warfield is S-2 with H&MS...

Captain and Mrs. Lou Barret are happy to announce the birth of a son, James Willis, on February 6... The little fellow made his debut at Chowan Hospital. Both mother and son are at home in Westover Heights and feeling very chipper.

The 211 Wives held their monthly meeting at my home last Tuesday. We had a very enjoyable time listening to recordings of some of the most famous Broadway hits. Pink and blue was the color theme at a recent shower honoring Mrs. Hans Zander... Mrs. Jack O'Connor, Mrs. Ray Fortmeyer and Mrs. James Waterstreet were the hostesses, and the site was the O'Connor home in Albemarle Court.

The guest list included Mrs. Wainwright Richardson, Mrs. Robert Calabrese, Mrs. Leonard Palmer, Mrs. Carl Rechin, Mrs. Paul Leahy, Mrs. Donald Healy, Mrs. Walter Wojciechowski, Mrs. Richard Coleman, Mrs. John Hyneman, Mrs. Buddy Emerson, Mrs. David

Knopic and Mrs. Robert Kazmierczak.

New arrivals from Pensacola are Lt. and Mrs. R. C. Jordan and infant son, Gal... Lt. Jordan or Dr. Jordan, whichever you prefer, will be at the dispensary. He attended high school in Edenton, so feels that he has returned home.

Everyone seemed to be enjoying themselves Saturday P. M. at the Dinner and Dance at the O' Club... I think they all were welcoming the opportunity to get out and see their friends... I know that after 3 weeks in the house with that Dennis-The-Menace of mine, I was overjoyed to spend a wonderful evening out.

Valentine's Day had a special meaning for Lt. and Mrs. E. D. Smith this year... On that day they welcomed a brand new son, Darryl Bradford... The Smiths have another son, Scott, who is 15 months... Congratulations!... and Happy Valentine...

February 14 was also the date of a shower honoring Mary Ann Skehan... Jeanine Coleman and Alice Healy were the hostesses and Valentine's Day was the theme... Among the guests were Kay Wojciechowski, Laverne Waterstreet, Pat Rechin, Illene Calabrese, Terry Richardson, Mary Ann Knopic, Lois Warfield, Maureen Zander, Marge Roth, Nina Keyes, Nina Lowery, Connie Fortmeyer, and Grace O'Connor... I mean to tell you that this bunch of people really got around last week...

The Chapel Guild will hold a bake sale Friday morning at 9:30 o'clock. It will be held at the P & Q Super Market.

Mrs. Early Spiars and Mrs. Gordon Keller, Program Chairmen of the O' Wives Club, in conjunction with the committee for the Spring

Fashion Show, announce the following models for the show: Virginia Davis, Jane McCaslin, Laverne Hyneman, Lee Breeze, Sylvia Engeman, Barbara Mimmack, Nancy Dalton, Carolyn Groover, Connie Fortmeyer, Irene Emerson, Laverne Waterstreet, Delores Wohlers, Carole McFerren, Ann Morgan, Beverly Leahy, Michelle McQuillan, Elizabeth Wall, Pat Taylor and Joan Church. The Fashion Show, with clothes from Blanche's of Plymouth, will be given at the Officers' Club on February 27, at 2:00 in the afternoon. The public is invited and tickets are $1...

Well... that's it for this time... be sure and give me a call if you have any news... Hope to see everyone at the fashion show... Toodle...

BLOODSHED BOXSCORE ON N.C. HIGHWAYS

Raleigh—The Motor Vehicles Department's summary of traffic deaths through 10 A. M., February 18, 1957:
