League. Practice sessions have been held at the base and Lieut. Atherton has called for recruits to meet at Hicks Field this (Thursday) afternoon at 5:30 o'clock and again Saturday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock. He is hoping Edenton boys interested in playing will report at those times in order to round out a team. He says he has prospect for a fair team, but is badly in need of pitchers and catchers.

As of last week's meeting five teams had been lined up including Elizabeth City, Hertford, Edenton, Camden and Sunbury. Another meeting of the league will be held, Friday night, May 10, at which time it will be determined if Williamston or Gatesville will complete the six-team circuit.

According to plans, four games a week will be played, two at home and two away, with the Edenton team playing on Hicks Field.

Lieut. Atherton is taking the leading role in organizing an Edenton team and hopes he will have the cooperation of players as well as attendance at the games. The season is scheduled to begin June 3 and continue for 10 weeks. Already several Edenton players have expressed their intention to try out for the team including Edgar Rogerson, Lin Jordan, Milar Stilly and Gene Taylor. Others are expected to turn out for practice.

Henderson, the speaker for the evening, who in his opening remarks commented on conditions back as far as 1875, pointing out education handicaps and when leadership depended upon men from 50 to 70 years old. "Young men and their ideas were pushed aside, scoffed at and ridiculed," he said. He said there has been a tremendous change and that now men at 36 are still young and life begins at 40.

Young men have taken the lead in civic progress," said the speaker, "and in North Carolina the advance made is recognized. There is still a great deal to be done for peace, progress and prosperity, and we stand at the threshold of which road to take. One road was taken by our forefathers and leads to an objective while the other is the road constantly looking for a grant for assistance, thus giving away a portion of our priceless heritage. There is an attitude among certain groups of working less and getting more for it and are not interested in giving a good day's work for a day's pay. More of us must deny ourselves and contribute to the community, state and nation, and those opposed to this philosophy are making hay while the sun shines. Each individual has a responsibility in our free and democratic way of life. We have a debt to pay in way of service and should endeavor to pay that debt."

Referring to the purpose of the Jaycees, Mr. Henderson pointed out the challenge for dedicated purpose, service to others, the community, state and nation for precious and priceless liberties and privileges now enjoyed. "You and I should be willing to go forward," he said, "and do better work to combat those who would impede progress. With God's guidance we should be able to look back and have the best year yet."

In closing Mr. Henderson congratulated the officers installed and the club for electing them. He expressed the hope that at least one Jaycee, when his time came to retire from the organization could be termed a leader.

FLYING FUR—LaVerne Hintzman of Brodhead, Wis., manages a slight smile but he's not really very happy. That luxuriant beard is already beginning to disappear from his face. Hintzman grew the beard for a town celebration and liked it so much he decided to keep it. Mrs. Hintzman had other ideas and her vacuum cleaner is blowing away some of the shorn whiskers.

Woe Is Me!

A lady has handed us, with a brave little smile, a sales slip she got at her butcher's the other day. It consists of one entry: "50-cent soup bone—75 cents."

Leveler!
There was once a mighty king who bestowed a princely reward upon every barber who gave him a good shave. But if the barber drew so much as one drop of blood from him, he had the unfortunate man beheaded.

One day a new barber gave the king a most excellent shave, and received his rich reward.

"Were you nervous for fear you'd cut me?" the king asked.

The barber smiled.
"No, your Majesty," he replied; "for if I had drawn a drop of blood from you, you would never have lived to raise an alarm—I would have slit your throat from ear to ear."
